when I planned to retire before fifty

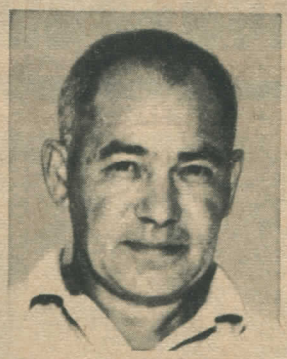
this is the business that made it possible

a true story by John B. Haikey



Starting with borrowed money, in just eight years I gained financial security, sold out at a profit and retired.

"Not until I was forty did I make up my mind that I was going to retire before ten years had passed. I knew I couldn't do it on a salary, no matter how good. I knew I couldn't do it working for others. It was perfectly obvious to me that I had to start a business of my own. But that posed a problem. What kind of business? Most of my money was tied up. Temporarily I was broke. But, when I found the business I wanted I was able to start it for a small amount of borrowed money.

"To pyramid this investment into retirement in less than ten years seems like magic, but in my opinion any man in good health who has the same ambition and drive that motivated me, could achieve such a goal. Let me give you a little history.

"I finished high school at the age of 18 and got a job as a shipping clerk. My next job was butchering at a plant that processed boneless beef. Couldn't see much future there. Next, I got a job as a Greyhound Bus Driver. The money was good. The work was pleasant, but I couldn't see it as leading to retirement. Finally I took the plunge and went into business for myself.

"I managed to raise enough money with my savings to invest in a combination motel, restaurant, grocery, and service station. It didn't take long to get my eyes opened. In order to keep that business going my wife and I worked from dawn to dusk, 20 hours a day, seven days a week. Putting in all those hours didn't match my idea of independence and it gave me no time for my favorite sport—golf! Finally we both agreed that I should look for something else.

"I found it. Not right away. I investigated a lot of businesses offered as franchises. I felt that I wanted the guidance of an experienced company—wanted to have the benefit of the plans that had brought success to others, plus the benefit of running my own business under an established name that had national recognition.

"Most of the franchises offered were too costly for me. Temporarily all my capital was frozen in the motel. But I found that the Duraclean franchise offered me exactly what I had been looking for.

"I could start for a small amount. (Today, less than $1500 starts a Duraclean dealership.) I could work it as a one-man business to start. No salaries to pay. I could operate from my home. No office or shop or other overhead. For transportation, I could use the trunk of my car. (I bought the truck later, out of profits). And best of all, there was no ceiling on my earnings. I could build a business as big as my ambition and energy dictated. I could put on as many men as I needed to cover any volume. I could make a profit on every man working for me. And I could build little by little, or as fast as I wished.

"So, I started. I took the wonderful training furnished by the company. When I was ready I followed the simple plan outlined in the training. During the first period I did all the service work myself. By doing it myself, I could make much more per hour than I had ever made on a salary. Later, I would hire men, train them, pay them well, and still make an hourly profit on their time that made my idea of retirement possible —I had joined the country club and now I could play golf whenever I wished.

"What is this wonderful business? It's Duraclean. And, what is Duraclean? It's an improved, space-age process for cleaning upholstered furniture, rugs, and tacked down carpets. It not only cleans but it enlivens and sparkles up the colors. It does not wear down the fiber or drive part of the dirt into the base of the rug as machine scrubbing of carpeting does. Instead it lifts out the dirt by means of an absorbent dry foam.

"Furniture dealers and department stores refer their customers to the Duraclean Specialist. Insurance men say Duraclean can save them money on fire claims. Hotels, motels, specialty shops and big stores make annual contracts for keeping their carpets and furniture fresh and clean. One Duraclean Specialist signed a contract for over $40,000 a year for just one hotel.

"Well, that's the business I was able to start with such a small investment. That's the business I built up over a period of eight years. And, that's the business I sold out at a substantial profit before I was fifty."

OLE ANDERSON'S BRUSH WITH DEATH

The Andersons, Ole (left) and Gene, are bloodied but unbowed after a recent tag-team tussle with the Mongols, Beppo and Geeto. Ole returned to the ring as good as new and mean as ever following his brush with death.

Ole Anderson (left) is jolted by a punch from Paul Jones as they battle toe-to-toe in a rock-'em, sock-'em match.

Know what a professional wrestler fears most?

If you want the answer to this question, simply walk over to the nearest mirror and take a long, hard look.

There's the answer, it's YOU... the wrestling fan!

A case in point occurred recently in Greenville, S.C.

What started out as just a routine night of mat mayhem for the Andersons, Ole and Gene, turned out to be much more for Ole.

In the ring, the Andersons suffered one of their rare defeats at the hands of the Dino Bravo-Tim Woods duo.

To make matters worse, Ole suffered an injury to his left arm.

After the match, the villainous Andersons were heading to the dressing room when the crowd became unruly.

"As we were going through the crowd after the match, we encountered a couple of individuals who wanted to try us. One punched me and another was going to hit me with a chair. While I was directing my attention toward them, someone came up and stabbed me. I didn't even see him," explained Ole.

The assailant proceeded to use Ole as a roast, so Anderson was actually in a fight for life.

Bleeding from a gash in his chest, Ole turned on his assailant and knocked him to the ground.

The assailant suffered a head injury, so both attacker and his victim were treated at the hospital.

"It took a few stitches to close up the wound," admitted Anderson after the incident which resulted in an eight to nine-inch long cut running from his left collarbone to near his waist.

Forced to take a couple of weeks off to recover from his injuries, Ole Anderson is back — bigger and badder than ever — lucky to be alive after a brush with death.

Stabbings are nothing new in the wild and wooly world of wrestling.

Angelo Savoldi needed about 80 stitches to be sewed up after he was attacked by a spectator during a match with Dan Hodge in Oklahoma City.

Black Jack Mulligan has a two-foot scar on his arm and leg as the result of a fan attack in Boston. Mulligan had just pinned Pedro Morales when a fan climbed into the ring and proceeded to stab the mustachioed villain. The wounds — which required almost 200 stitches — kept Mulligan out of action two months.

The men aren't the only ones to fall victim to the pent-up emotions of these fanatical fans. The Fabulous Moolah one of the greatest gal grapplers of all times sports a scar from her right shoulder to her hip, a souvenir carved by a fan's Bowie knife.

Knives aren't the only weapons that these maniacs of matdom wield to assault grapplers.

In San Antonio, Texas, a fan snatched the timekeeper's hammer, climbed up on the ring apron and conked Johnny Valentine on the head.

Thrown objects are a more common danger to these wrestlers. Gus Sonnenberg was the target for an iron armrest; Ernie Dusek was felled by a chair thrown by a fan from the balcony; Al Costello was hit by a fire extinguisher; The Sheik has been bombarded with a barrage of items during his villainous career: fruits, vegetables, flashbulbs, batteries, beer cans and soft drink and whiskey bottles.

Even worse than individual attacks are the riots which occur occasionally.

In 1957, at Madison Square Garden, the popular team of Antonio Rocca and Edouard Carpentier had just beaten the dastardly duo of Dr. Jerry Graham and Dick The Bruiser, much to the delight of the capacity crowd.

Graham wasn't satisfied with the outcome, however, and proceeded to slug Rocca while he was accepting the plaudits from his supporters, bringing blood.

Rocca retaliated by banging Graham's head against the ringpost until the claret was flowing from the bad guy's forehead.

The frenzied fans went berserk.

Two policemen were injured, Graham's expensive, sequined robe was stolen, 500 chairs were damaged, and three overzealous fans were fined or jailed.

THROW AWAY YOUR OLD GAS-GULPING, POWER-ROBBING SPARK PLUGS!

Now!...*Run Your Car Without Spark Plugs...

GET MORE HORSEPOWER, MORE MILES PER GALLON USING ONLY YOUR ORDINARY GAS!

*This revolutionary new invention, installed in less than 15 minutes, is so different it had to be given a brand-new name ... the FIRE INJECTOR. It must give you MORE horsepower, MORE miles per gallon for the life of your car. See unprecedented Guarantee below!

Your car runs because gasoline is fed into the cylinders where a spark causes it to fire. This action causes the gasoline to explode—this explosion pushes down the pistons. Now, here is the important thing to you. The larger this spark is, the more powerful the explosion. The more powerful the explosion, the more power you get from a given amount of gasoline.

Poor explosion means wasted gas, loss of power, poor getaway, bad starting, a sluggish car. A good explosion means more miles per gallon, more horsepower, better pickup, quick starting, an exciting car to drive.

WHAT CONTROLS YOUR ENGINE EFFICIENCY?

Your spark plugs control the efficiency of that explosion. And if they are borderline plugs, not only do they give a small spark to begin with, but they get worse every mile you drive. That you can see for yourself! Put a new set of spark plugs in your car and then look at them at 100 miles — at 1,000 miles — at 5,000 miles. Every time you look you will see more filth and carbon...more of the electrode burning and eroding away.

Why, some of the new high compression engines can burn up a set of spark plugs in a couple of thousand miles of driving. Now, you tell me how a weak, inefficient spark from a filthy, burned-out plug can possibly give you the kind of flashing, economical performance you want from your car!

NEW PLUG OLD PLUG

Spark plug experts admit that plugs only 200 hours old can waste up to one quart of gas out of every gallon you buy...that's 25¢ for every $1.00 you spend. And—after only 10,000 miles, they're ready for the garbage!

STOP USING YOUR OLD BORDER-LINE SPARK PLUGS NOW!

Now, read very carefully what I'm going to suggest. I am going to give you the idea to stop using 10,000-mile spark plugs in your car! That's right...get rid of them forever! But, you may ask: "If I get rid of my plugs, what will make my engine run?"

Well, please remember that if you were told a couple of years ago that your car could run without a carburetor, you simply wouldn't have believed it—yet today you can have gas injection and get more mileage, efficiency and power from less gas—and in a few years gas injection will have replaced carburetors on most cars. In the same way, all you have to do is to replace your old, borderline, inefficient spark plugs with a modern fuel ignition system, and you can do it yourself in 15 minutes if you've never handled a tool in your whole life!

MECHANICS AND ENGINEERS READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY

Now, the new fire injection I am talking about is so inexpensive that it can pay for itself in gasoline savings alone. For the moment, forget about the extra pep, power and performance that can be in store for you. Forget about the savings in spark plug servicing and replacement, the savings in wear and tear on pistons and cylinders. Just remember that one plug mis-firing in a V-8 engine can cut mileage by as much as 12%. Just remember that this fire injection system can pay for itself in gas savings.

Let me tell you how:

A spark plugs jumps a spark of electricity across an air gap; this is very wasteful, and limits the size of the spark.

A fire injector fires on the surface of a semi-conductive material which delivers a heavy, powerful flame that will not blow out at pressures far greater than those created by high-compression engines!

On borderline spark plugs, the air gap is always getting larger—wasting power and gasoline. Your plugs are constantly accumulating filth and carbon because of inefficient ignition.

A fire injector has no air gap to erode away. It will actually outlast your automobile, delivering maximum efficiency without servicing or replacement. There is no wasted gasoline, no loss of power to which you are entitled.

Ordinary spark plugs have to be replaced regularly — or for extra life, you must remove them — clean them — regap and then re-install them.

A fire injector is guaranteed for the life of your car - no cleaning, servicing, replacing.

POSITIVE, SCIENTIFIC PROOF!

When you get your set of Fire Injectors, here is all you do. If you have automatic transmission — make a note of how fast your car crawls forward when it is in the drive position with the motor idling. If you have a sports car, a racing car or a boat — make a note of the tachometer RPMs when idling.

If you have a regular transmission, put your car in low gear on a level road and notice its speed with the motor idling. Next, take any inexpensive spark plug wrench and remove your spark plugs. You'll never need them again! Just screw your fire injectors into the spark plug openings.

✓ CHECK THESE DIFFERENCES!

SPARK PLUG	FIRE INJECTOR
	• Fires across air gap	NO air gap to erode away
• Wire electrode burns away	NO wire electrode
• Carbon ruins firing tip	NO tip deterioration
• Needs cleaning & setting	NO cleaning or setting
• Needs periodic replacing	NO replacing
• Spark blows out under pressure	NO blowing out even at highest compression

If you have automatic transmission, now put your car in drive and let your engine idle. If your car stood still with spark plugs, it will now move forward at from 4 to 6 miles per hour: that means the amount of gas that just kept your engine turning over will now carry you further — faster — cheaper!

If you have a racing car, sports car or boat, your RPMs will increase up to 200 more at idling, up to 300 more at high speed.

If you have regular transmission, in low gear and with your motor idling, your car will more forward 4 to 6 miles per hour faster. In other words, no matter what you drive, here is absolute proof that you can go further — go faster — go cheaper when you have proven fire injectors in your car!

ORDER YOUR FIRE INJECTORS NOW!

You can have your set of Fire Injectors for the year and model of your car for a fraction of their value, and if they do not deliver maximum performance, you get your money back within 30 days, or FREE replacement for as long as you own that car.

GUARANTEE: Use your Fire Injectors entirely at our risk ... give them every test you can think of ... power — economy — starting — smoothness — performance, etc. Then, if you are not completely satisfied at the end of 30 days, simply return them for full refund. We further guarantee Free Replacement of any Fire Injector, regardless of the reason, for as long as you own your car. Every set of Fire Injectors is fully protected by a world-famous insurance company.

The male wrestlers aren't the only ones to be attacked by fanatic fans. The Fabulous Moolah sports a scar as the result of a knife attack.

Dr. Julius Helfand, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission at that time, canceled the next scheduled wrestling program and levied fines against the wrestlers for inciting the fans — Rocca and Graham $1,000 each, Bruiser $500 and Carpentier $100.

One would expect that most of these assailants are young men who go to the matches with a few drinks under their belts and tend to get carried away with the action.

However, it ain't necessarily so.

The grandmotherly-types sitting serenely at ringside awaiting the start of the matches have often been known to be armed with such weapons as hatpins and knitting needles which they aren't adverse to using if the villain happens to be thrown out of the ring and lands in their vicinity.

The man that attacked Ole Anderson in Greenville, S.C., was a mere 'lad' of 82 years of age.

Is there any way to clamp down on this violence?

Certainly, fencing or roping off the area around the ring would help keep the fans back and building a special plexiglass, covered ring would prevent fans from not only climbing into the ring but also from tossing things at the combatants.

However, the wrestlers would still have to enter and exit the ring and would be susceptible to fan violence en route to the ring and in the corridors to the dressing rooms.

Keeping the fans farther away from the ring might be a safety measure, but it might also hurt the sport. One of the attractions of wrestling is that the fans can buy the more expensive ringside seats and get closer to their heroes.

Ringsiders can better see the blood flowing down the faces of the grapplers, can reach out and touch their idols with a congratulatory word after a victory or an encouraging pat on the back after a defeat.

Shutterbugs who like to take their own pictures and autograph seekers also like to be close to the action so that they can pursue their hobbies.

So, if the arena owners and promoters around the world were to try and make the sport safer — either by special rings or moving the fans back — they might be robbing Peter to pay Paul.

The wrestlers would be safer but the sport would lose some of its ap-

It is a fact that many millionaires do not pay a cent in Federal taxes because they have mastered the tax loopholes that are unknown to most wage earners and small businessmen.

Letting the system work for them, instead of working for the system, is how people become and stay rich, while the tax burden stays on you. And believe it or not, the tax laws allow it. Now it's possible for you to tap into this large annual reservoir of taxed earnings that you were previously forced to give up. Now you can benefit from the mighty forces known as the legal system. Now, hundreds, even thousands of tax dollars can flow to you instead of Uncle Sam.

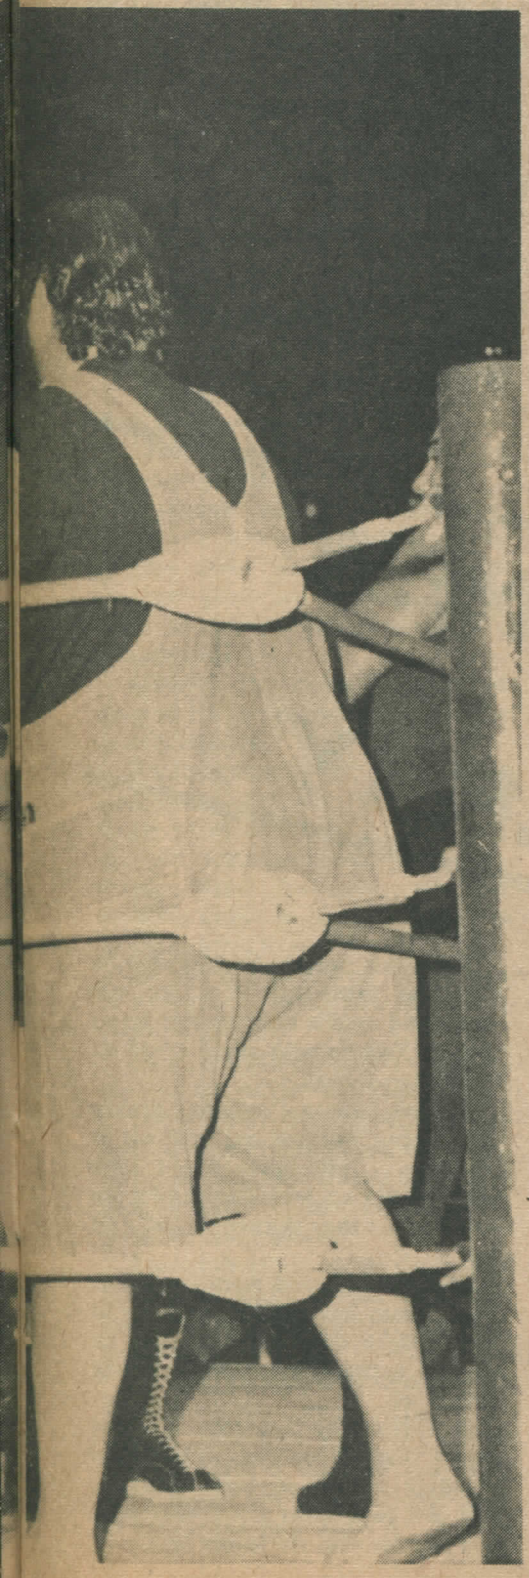
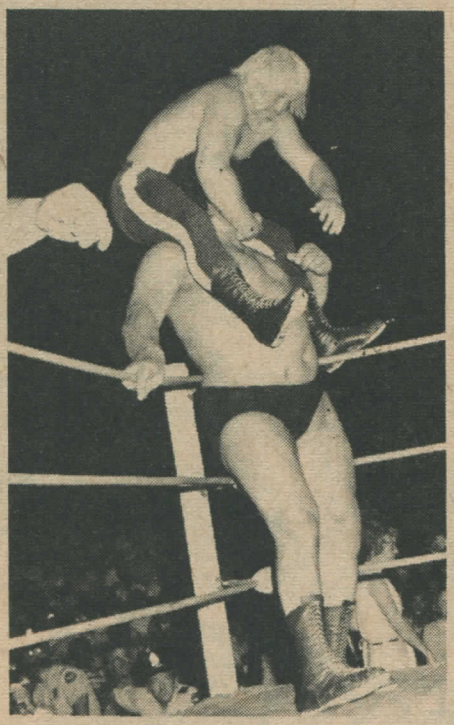
ANDRE PROVES KIN

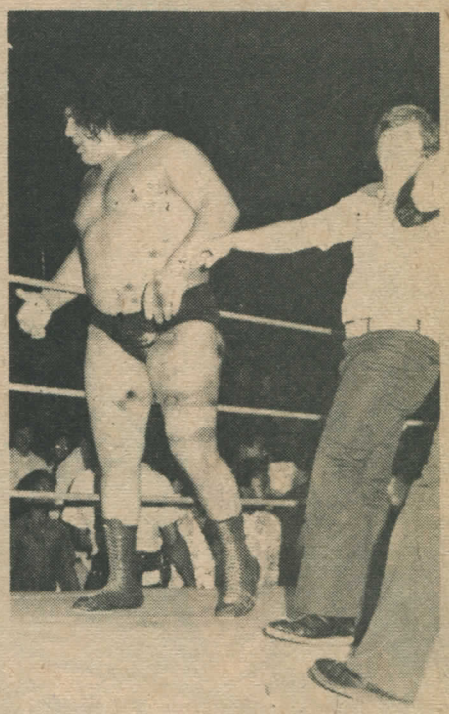
Confusion reigns supreme as action gets under way in this 20-man Battle Royal in Atlanta, Ga. Among the competitors were Haystacks Calhoun, Rick Martell, Stan Stasiuk, Black Gordman, Goliath, Tony Charles, Mark Lewin, Moon Dog Mayne and Andre The Giant.

G IN BATTLE ROYAL

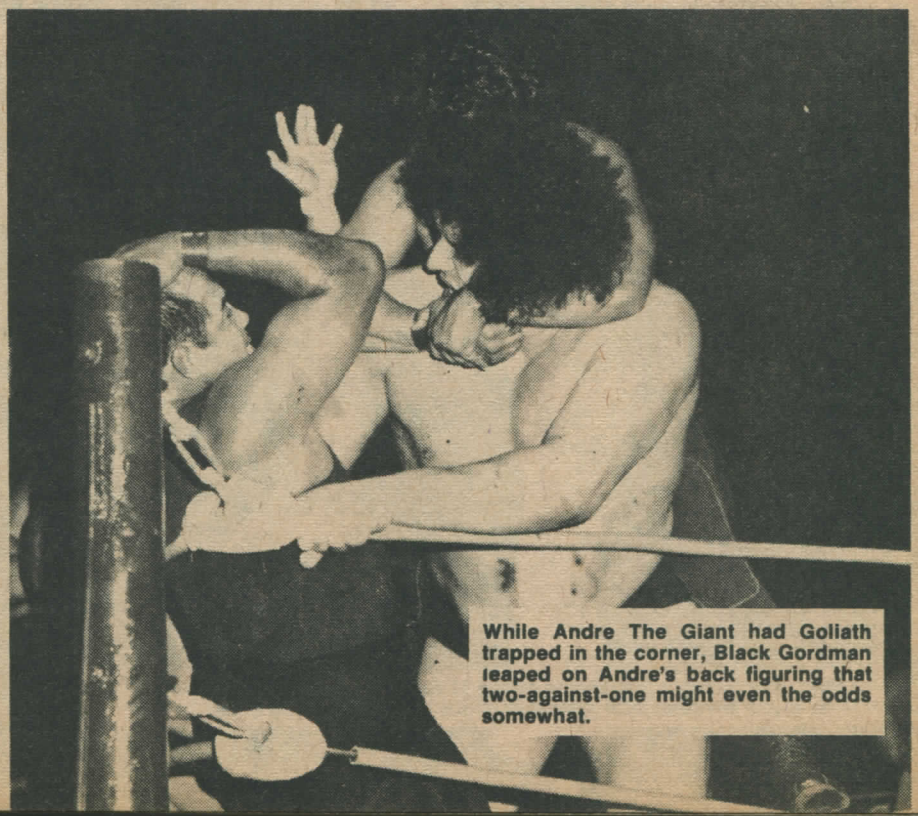




Moon Dog Mayne was riding high at this stage in the match as he sits astride Andre The Giant's shoulders, but not for long as Moon Dog was soon headed for a fall.



The Battle Royal is over and the survivor of this 20-man exhibition of mat mayhem, Andre The Giant, is about to have his arm raised in victory.



While Andre The Giant had Goliath trapped in the corner, Black Gordman leaped on Andre's back figuring that two-against-one might even the odds somewhat.

THE BRIGHTEST NEW 'STARR' IN THE GRAPPLING GALAXY

There's a new 'Starr' shining in the grappling galaxy — Ron Starr. The 6-foot-1, 203-pound native of Baton Rouge, La., has only been wrestling professionally for four years but has already made his mark in the rough, tough, rock-'em, sock-'em world of grunt 'n' groaners.

Starr took an active interest in wrestling while a seventh-grade student in Baton Rouge, getting his first taste of mat competition through the local YMCA program. Ron continued his amateur wrestling at high school and at Louisiana State University.

After college, Starr was drafted but continued wrestling on service teams while stationed at Fort Knox, Ky., and Fort Bragg, Fayetteville, N.C., as a member of the 25th Infantry Division.

Ron also served with the Green Berets in Vietnam. While over there, Starr had a bout with malaria and also suffered a leg wound.

Upon his return to civilian life, Ron was interested in a pro mat career and credits veterans Ken Lucas and Al Velasco with starting him on the road to success.

"Those two mat veterans took a lot of time working out with me in the gym. I will never forget their kindness and am very thankful for the interest that they showed in me" said Ron.

The helping hand from Lucas and Velasco may have gotten Starr headed in the right direction, but once he stepped between the ropes Ron was on his own.

It didn't take Ron long to prove that he had all the tools to become a wrestling star — physique, strength, skill and good looks which help make him popular with the female fans.

Ron Starr, this 6-foot-1, 203-pound native of Baton Rouge, La., has already made his mark as a pro wrestler after only four years in the grappling game.

Among the honors amassed by Starr already in his brief career are the Tri-State (Alabama, Mississippi, and Tennessee) tag-team title when he was paired with Steve Lawler and the Gulf Coast tag-team title with Terry Latham as his partner.

Taking a leave of absence from the United States mat wars, Starr travelled to Guatemela and proved he was just as proficient in a solo effort by winning the Pan-American heavyweight title from Jose Azzari.

Since returning to the U.S.A., Ron has been a regular performer throughout Georgia, Florida, Kentucky, Texas, Tennessee, West Virginia, Alabama, Mississippi, Oklahoma; his home state of Louisiana, as well as the Mid-Atlantic territory which covers Virginia and North and South Carolina.

Ron also wrestles solo and, as such, has tangled with the likes of, Tim Woods, Ole Anderson, Missouri Mauler, Jerry Oates, Jerry Brisco and Professor Malenko.

In tag-team tussles, Ron usually is paired with another outstanding young wrestler Steve Keirn, and the two Southern gentlemen have become one of the most popular duos in the Mid-Atlantic region.

Although this might come as sad news to his female fans, Ron Starr is happily married.

Wrestling even played a part in Ron meeting his wife, the former Debbie Roane of Baton Rouge, La. Although she had watched wrestling on television, Debbie had only attended wrestling shows in person three times before meeting Ron.

Debbie and Ron were introduced by a mutual friend the wife of wrestler Seigfried Steinke.

Both Ron and his charming, attractive wife are avid football fans.

Ron's outside-the-ring activities are many and varied such as gun collecting, music, animals, particularly horses and dogs. In fact, the Starrs own a beautiful Doberman Pinscher.

Ron's favorite foods are Cajun, and his favorite music is rock with Pink Floyd and Eric Clapton as his best-liked artists.

For the astrology minded, Ron is an Aries and was born on April 3.

Remember Ron Starr, he's one of the fastest-rising stars in the grappling galaxy and some day he could be a bona fide 'SuperStarr'.

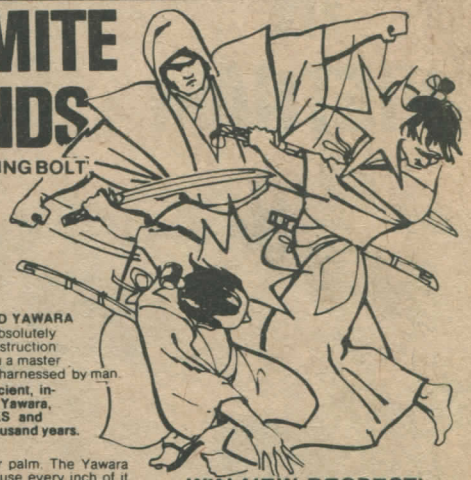
PACK DYNAMITE IN YOUR HANDS

NOW, THE FAMED "PRIESTS LIGHTENING BOLT" OF ANCIENT CHINA, THE SIMPLE BUT INCREDIBLY DEADLY YAWARA,

CAN BE YOURS ABSOLUTELY FREE!



HERE'S HOW TO GET YOUR FREE POWER PACKED YAWARA
Yes, it's true . . . the power packed Yawara is yours absolutely free when you order the book "Yawara Power," the instruction manual designed to take you step by step and make you a master of the most dynamic and unbeatable fighting force ever harnessed by man.

Yawara Power is not some new "gimmick." It is an ancient, incredibly effective fighting technique utilizing the deadly Yawara, which was devised by CHINESE FIGHTING MONKS and proven in the field of combat for more than two thousand years.

WHAT IS THE YAWARA?
It is a small, specially-made weapon you hold in your palm. The Yawara gives you a special advantage over any attacker because every inch of it spells deadly trouble.
The powerful Yawara weapon turns your fist into dynamite . . . crushes bones, rips flesh, makes your opponents BEG for mercy.

COMPLETELY LEGAL!
What's more, the Yawara defense weapon is perfectly legal. You need no permit to carry it, there are no laws against it.
Unlike flick knives, switchblades and zip guns, the Yawara is harmless in itself. It is only deadly when you know how to use it. This means that even if an attacker should get hold of your weapon he is unable to use it against you. And because the Yawara is so small, you can carry it in your pocket wherever you go.

YAWARA . . . THE ONE THAT CAN'T FAIL!
Yawara must work for you. It is widely used in the Orient by men and women who are too old, too young, or too weak to defend themselves by sheer strength.
The Yawara device makes up for this lack—puts a "lightning bolt" in your hand. You control the power of a pile-driver, without spending years hardening your hands.
Police around the world use Yawara techniques to put down riots, calm down "tough guys," and restore law and order.

WIN NEW RESPECT!
See how your friends, neighbors and loved ones admire you when you prove how easily you can master even the toughest thug or bully.
And most important of all, prove to yourself that no one can push you around ever again.

NO-RISK OFFER!
Send for your Yawara Course today, and put it to the test. Try it playfully on your friends, family, neighbors (but please be careful not to hurt them). Enjoy this new power for a full thirty days. Then, if you're still not convinced, just return the book for a refund of your purchase price.

FREE YAWARA WEAPON
With each Yawara course you get a genuine, custom made Yawara Defense Attack Weapon Absolutely Free! That's right. Even if you ask for a refund, the Yawara is yours to keep.
But please act fast. Our supply of this special Yawara device is limited. Mail the coupon now!

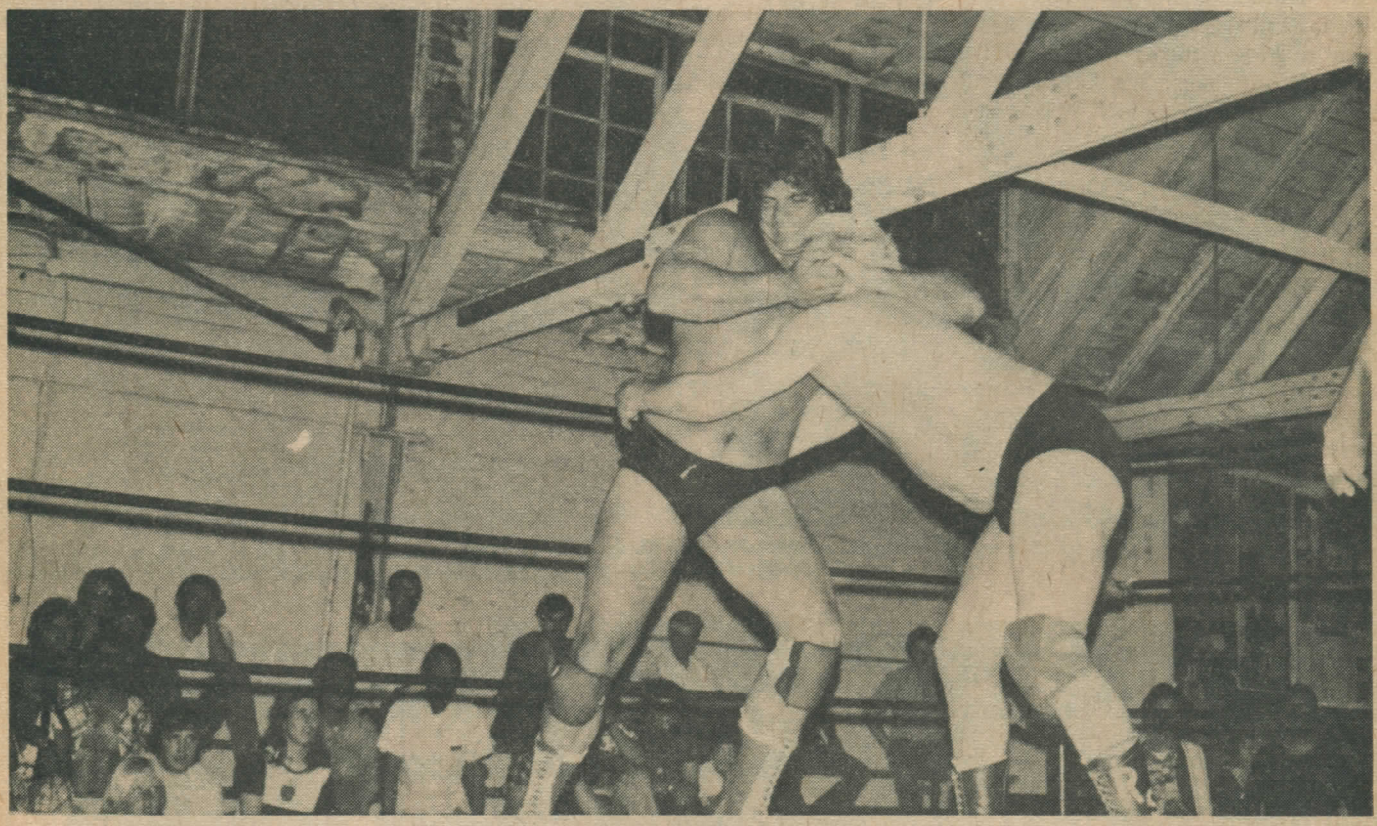
APPROVED FOR VETERANS & NON-VETS • Also approved for Vocational Rehabilitation

ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS



After all his remarks, the self-proclaimed 'best looking wrestler in the world' Don Muraco attempts to make short work of the veteran Ray Stevens as he clamps on a painful headlock.

Not adverse to using illegal tactics to soften up his opponent, Muraco clamps a chokehold on Stevens while the referee moves in to have the hold broken.

MURACO'S TALK PROVES CHEAP AGAINST STEVENS

There's an old adage, "Sticks and stones may break my bones but names will never hurt me."

However, veteran Ray Stevens' pride had to be stung by the name-calling of Don Muraco prior to their match in Modesto, Calif.

"Stevens is an old man, he's the Fred Flintstone of wrestling. He's also fat and flabby. Stevens may have been a great wrestler in the 1950s and '60s but those years have passed. Stevens is just living off his reputation," proclaimed Muraco.

Stevens wasn't as cocky as his younger opponent, but obviously was not psyched by Muraco's running off at the mouth.

"I may have gained some weight in recent years, but I'm far from being washed up," replied Stevens. "I have more experience than that big mouth Muraco, but I'll let the results in the ring speak for themselves.

"I expect a tough battle from Muraco because if he can upset me it will be a real feather in his cap. However, talk is cheap and actions speak louder than words and I'll be happy to teach him some respect when we climb between the ropes," stated Stevens.

As expected, Muraco started fast in an effort to back up his derogatory remarks about Stevens.

Raking his hand over Stevens' eyes Muraco temporarily blinded the Blond Bomber and went to work with a flying backdrop, clamped a choke hold on Stevens, then unleashed a vicious kicking attack to Ray's leg and midsection which left the veteran bruised and breathless.

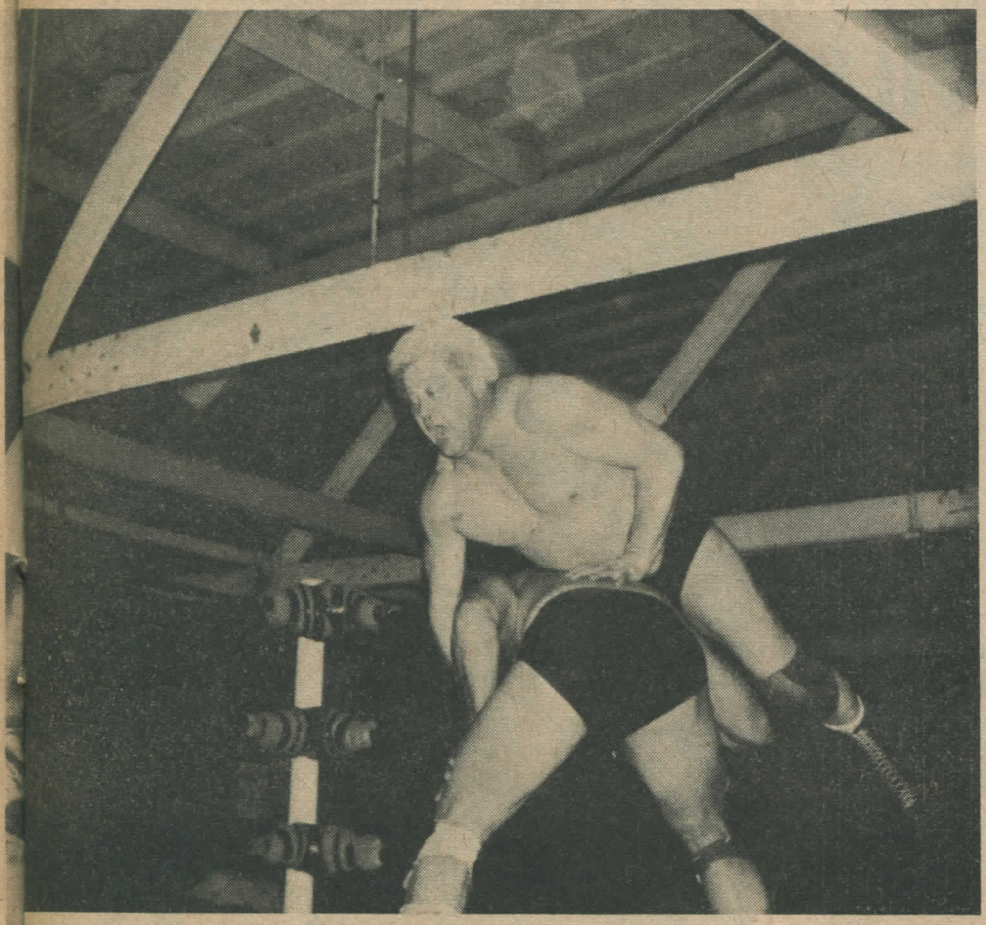
Applying a painful stepover toehold, Muraco snarled at Stevens, "Give it up, old man or I will break it."

Whether it was Muraco's words that aroused him, or simply the fact that Stevens had caught his second wind, the veteran kicked free of the toehold and unleashed an attack of his own.

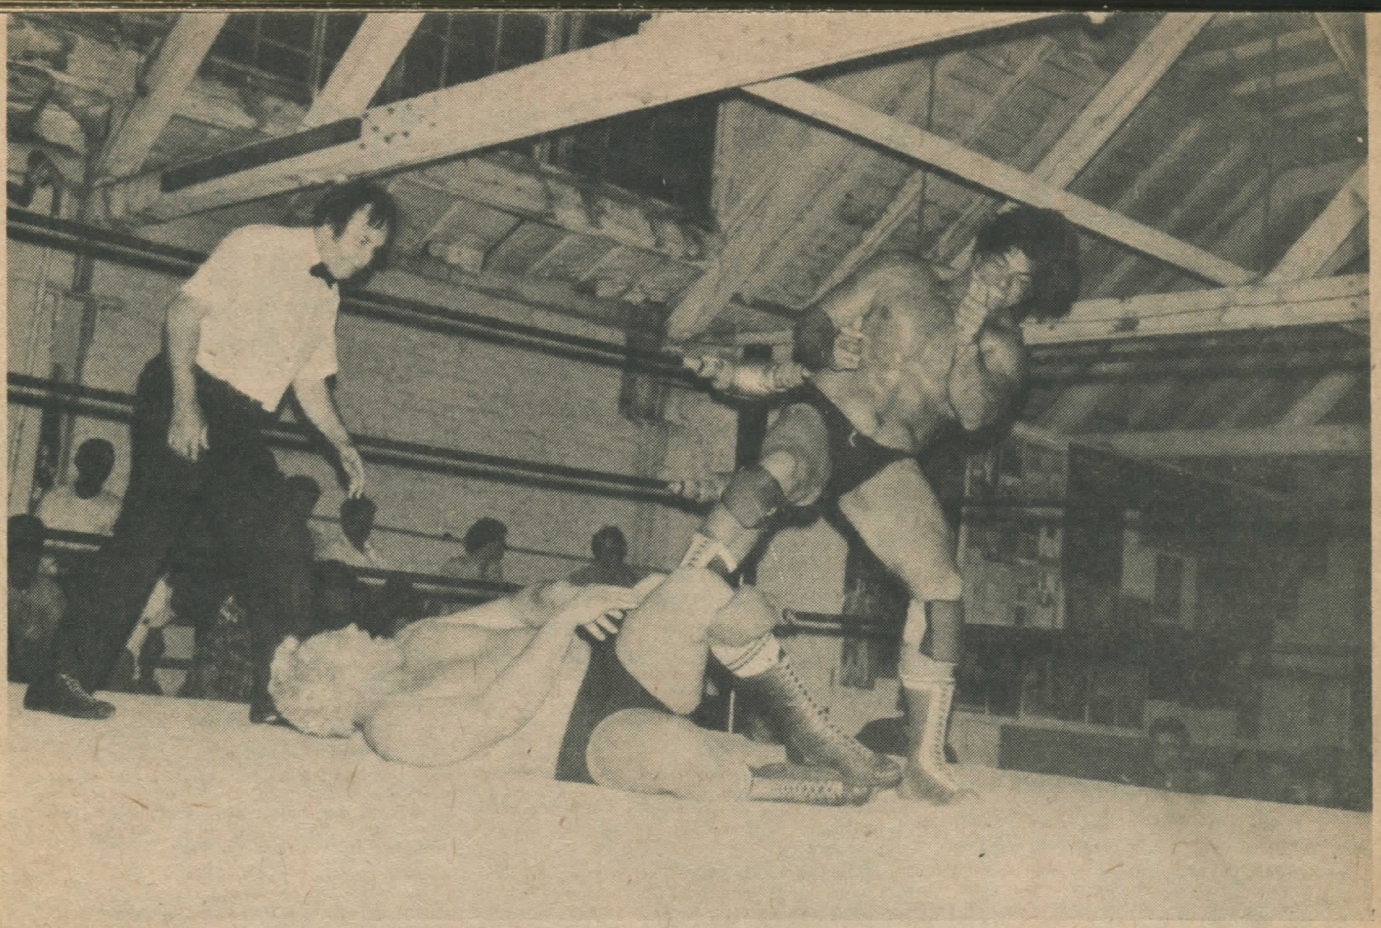
Throwing Muraco halfway across the ring, Stevens clamped on a painful headlock. For several minutes, Stevens continued to work on Muraco's head and neck. However, Don managed to get to his feet then threw Stevens off, sending the veteran flying through the ropes.

Clamoring out of the ring after his opponent, Muraco was greeted by a twofisted barrage but bounced back with some good rights and lefts of his own as they battled toe-to-toe outside the ring.

Just as the referee was going to count both combatants out, Stevens rolled back into the ring leaving Muraco on the floor. Don was unable to beat the count and wound up a loser.

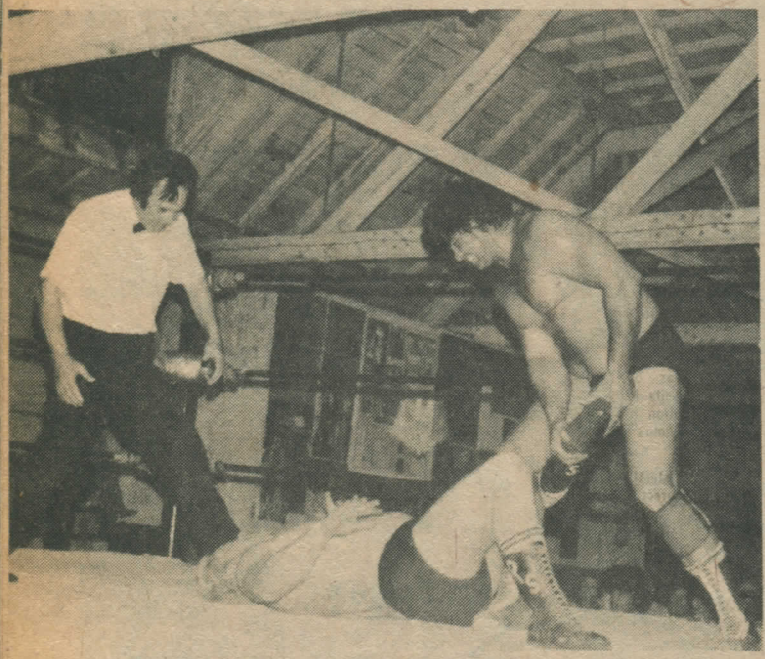


Stevens doesn't like what's about to happen as he flies through the air and over Muraco's back.

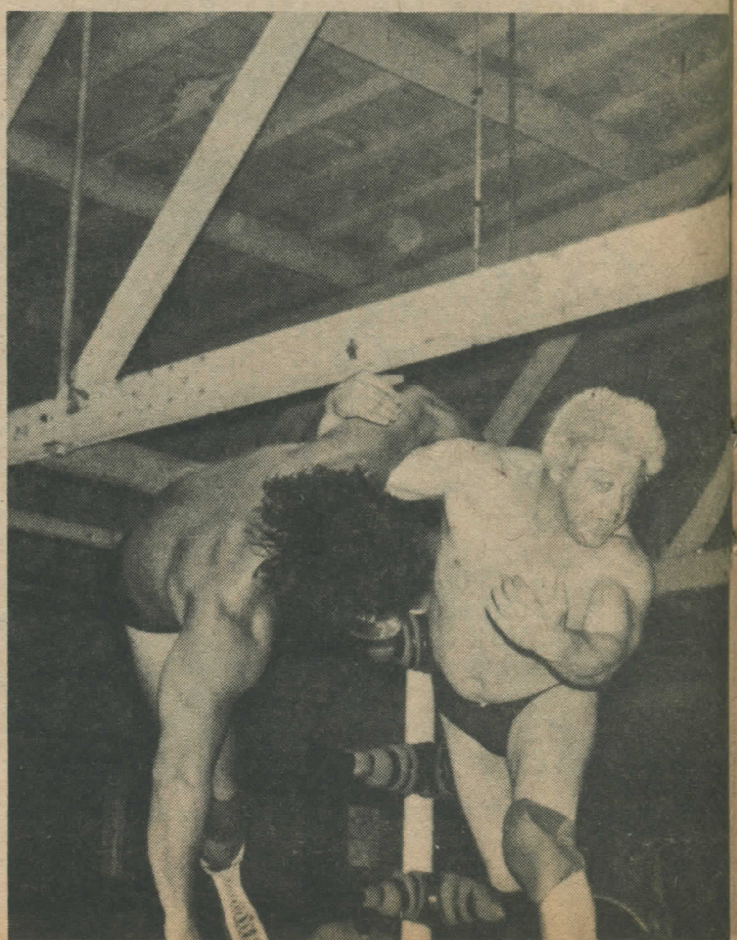


After Stevens hit the deck, Muraco wasted no time in taking advantege of his opponent by stomping on his fallen foe.

MURACO FAILS TO BEAT COUNT



Figuring Stevens was ripe for the kill, Muraco then applied a pain ful stepover toehold in an effort to make the Blond Bomber con cede the bout.



An aroused Stevens throws Muraco across the ring after brea king loose from the toehold and the tide of battle takes a defi nite turn.

HOW TO COMMAND POTENCY

at will . . . with a series of simple mental and physical exercises, that take only minutes a day, BUT THAT MAKE YOU "ALL MAN" TO YOUR WOMAN ANYTIME YOU CHOOSE TO DELIGHT HER!

As easily and automatically as this . . .

Let us repeat this simple promise: A Method for Commanding FULL EROTIC POTENCY has now been discovered! And you may now learn it, in the privacy of your own home, without risking a penny!

How is this done? In these two scientifically-proven ways:

First, by gaining at last masterful control over the "switch" that connects your brain to your sex organs! So that you tap, at will, your buried love power! Replace sexual insecurity with total self-confidence! Gain instant arousal . . . become every inch the lover Nature meant you to be . . . actually find yourself performing better in bed than you can possibly remember from the very best era of your youth!

And — equally as important —

By deliberately strengthening those "forgotten muscles" that are used only in the act of love, and therefore grow almost useless in the average man after he leaves his twenties! And taking those hidden "support" muscles, and building in a few minutes every day such rock-hard strength into them that you will achieve at last complete mastery of your own virility . . . shown most dramatically in your new-found ability to maintain "staying power" for "unbelievably" long periods of time!

Does it really work? Can such a sexual transformation be achieved in such a short time? Read the DOCUMENTED CASE HISTORIES in this book, and see every shadow of a doubt vanish from your mind!

For example:

Read why 60 and 70-year-olds, who had given themselves up as far as the bedroom was ever concerned again, have suddenly found themselves MORE sexually-active . . . MORE sexually-alive . . . MORE sexually-competent than they were at their 30 or 40-year-old peak!

Read how one young man went through his first twenty-some years thinking continually that he was "born to be" a "sexual cripple". And then read how — only a few short months later — one of his girl friends said in a research-interview: "Once a woman has been with a man like Eric, all other men seem second-rate"!

Read of the 70-plus year-old man who now keeps several girl friends busy . . . including one 23-year-old beauty who is perfectly willing to admit to anyone that THIS man is (to use her own words) "terrific" in bed!

And then go on to duplicate these men's transformations with your own! And build a massive virility into your own body with ingenious "training devices" like these . . .

The first step: The simple "Potency-Restoring Ritual" that costs nothing . . . is completely private . . . gives extreme pleasure while you use it . . . and may have your woman gasping in surprise that very same evening!

What to do about "sexual hang-ups"! How to "De-Block your Turn-On Channels" — in minutes!

How to take your "Ecstasy Nerves" out of deep-freeze! In other words, FEEL two, three and four times as much pure sensation from every minute of love . . . at exactly the same time that you have rigid control over every reflex in your body, so you can CONTINUE that sensation as long as YOU wish to continue it!

The safest, and easiest, way to prevent prostate trouble.

How to keep the Youth Juices flowing in your body! In other words, use these simple exercises, not only to make you a master in bed, but also to "Re-Landscape" your face and body so you may have to reject more offers than you accept!

Sexual Breathing! Known by the Yogas, but almost completely forgotten in our day! (One of its many uses — to remove, for good, the false limitation that keeps you now from making brillant love for hours . . . or, if you so choose, all night!)

Super Circulation! Perhaps the most startling technique of all! How, in essence, to "re-direct" massive blood flow to ANY part of your body, and therefore achieve a solidity and expansion that you may not have dreamed possible before!

But this is still not all! Now this amazing volume goes on to give you ALMOST-HYPNOTIC POWER OVER WOMEN, from the very first moment you meet!

But mastery of your own body is incomplete unless it is combined with mastery of the other person's body (and emotions) as well! So now you are given the final step: How to demand more . . . and more . . . and more from your woman! and make her love every step!

For example:

What women prize in a lover most . . . what they expect . . . what they fear . . . what turns them on and drives them wild . . . what non-bed actions allow them to trust you completely in bed! All gathered for you, in condensed form, from "shameless" interviews with hundreds of women all over America!

How to thaw out the lady who wears a "psychological chastity belt"! Snap her out of her "sexual shock" for perhaps the first time in her adult life! Turn her on completely, so she'll do with you what she'd never think of doing with anyone else!

How to spot the highly-sexed woman, before you even begin talking to her! (No, she is NOT promiscuous! She saves her abandon for special man. But, once you convince her, this way, that you're that man, then get ready for the greatest night of your life . . . for openers!)

How to let a woman know, without offending her in any way, that you will thrill her in bed, within five minutes after you meet her.

How to prepare a woman for unbridled love! (For example, on page 234 you will find a new method of kissing that may actually send her into spasms of ecstasy before you lay a finger on her body! And wait till you read the pages after that!)

So what you have here is a revolutionary new handbook, not only to massive sexual potency, but to complete mastery in bed! And it's yours to read from cover to cover, entirely at our risk!

Why not send for it, with the No-Risk Coupon, today. Your full money back, of course, if you are not delighted.

Can a woman teach men Super-Potency? The answer is an overwhelming YES!

Take a renowned teacher of "Psycho-Control" (the power of the mind, if properly trained, to completely master the vital functions of the body). Give her twenty-plus years of success in teaching both men and women to lose weight at will . . . break the cigarette habit at will . . . snap out of allergies at will. And then let her direct those same mind-over-body discoveries to the most important "If-I-could-only-command-it" area of all!

What happens? Breakthroughs — documented again and again and again — for men of all ages, and all problems, gaining new-born virility they couldn't have believed possible only a few short weeks before!

Read these thrilling case histories yourself in Rachael Copelan's revolutionary new book — and read them entirely at our risk! And then take the exact same Potency Techniques that she is teaching for up to $100 a week in her nationally-famous Sex Clinic in New York City . . . and use them to transform YOUR sex life — today — entirely at our risk!

A Pair of Famous Hanover® Shoes or Boots...

YOURS FREE!

I've given away thousands of shoes and boots to men who had the courage to face the fact that the only way to beat high prices is with more money. I've shown these men how they can earn up to $200 extra each month by showing friends and neighbors how to save $15 or more on high quality shoes. For proof, look at the comparison story on the right.

Jumping on the Hanover bandwagon is the simplest thing you can imagine—and it doesn't cost you a cent. Just mail the card at the right. It doesn't even need a stamp. I'll send you a complete selling kit including the full color Hanover catalog of more than 200 shoe styles and put you in business for yourself right now.

You'll find the Hanover catalog will let you offer your friends dress shoes and boots, casual shoes, slip-ons, work shoes, fleece lined boots for working outside or hunting. You don't "sell." You hand the catalog to a friend or co-worker, let him see the spectacular buys Hanover offers, and let the high quality of Hanover sell for you. I am not suggesting that you quit your regular job. Not at all. Right now I'm talking about a spare time business that will bring you extra income. But let me also tell you that the Hanover door is open to even more opportunities and more money. I'll show you how you can put yourself into the executive class at an executive's income. And I'll show you plenty of men who have followed this path with Hanover and are making more money than they ever made in their lives.

1. Uppers—Identical
2. Linings—Identical
3. Outsoles—Identical
4. Innersoles—Identical but only the Hanover has a cushion between the outsole and the innersole.
5. Steel Arch Support—Identical but the Hanover has a longitudinal arch cushion.
6. Leather Storm Welt—Identical
7. Laces—Identical
8. Fit—Made over identical lasts from the same last manufacturer.

Fill in your name and let us give you more proof that Hanover shoes are a business man's "dream" —a better product at a lower price.

TIRED OF HOLLYWOOD RAT RACE, SHIRLEY EYES PRO MAT CAREER

Many girls would give their right arm to live the life Shirley Sanders has — actress, model and world traveller.

However, that wasn't enough for Shirley.

"I won a lot of beauty contests while I was a teenager and it seemed almost natural that I would make my way to Hollywood and a career in films and television.

"Let me tell you, it's a real rat race. Pretty faces are a dime a dozen in California, and it's not what you know as much as who you know that decides whether a girl gets even a bit part in the movies or on TV." said Shirley, letting off steam.

"The auditions were getting to be more like cattle calls, a bunch of girls waiting around to read for just a few seconds for a group of people, many of whom seemed totally disinterested with what the girl was saying or doing.

"To make matters worse, it's hard to make friends among the other actors and actresses. The other girls look on you as a rival and it's even more difficult to become close friends when you realize that the day will probably come when you are both up for the same part. Then, as the saying goes, 'All's fair in love, war and landing a part'."

Frustrated by the dog-eat-dog existence in Hollywood, Shirley used to go to a local gymnasium regularly. There she could keep her fabulous figure in shape — Shirley did some modelling to keep the wolf away from the door while chasing her elusive dream of movie or television stardom — and found it a great place to release her pent-up emotions.

"There was a ring in the gym, and occasionally when there weren't too many patrons of the place around, a couple of girls would climb between the ropes and engage in a friendly scuffle," explained Shirley.

"Although wrestling isn't regarded as being very feminine, it was nothing new to me. I grew up in a family of six, two girls and four boys, and even the girls had to learn how to fight.

Even though we were careful not to hurt each other, I soon found that I could handle all the girls in the gym. In fact, it got to the point where none of them wanted to get into the ring with me."

Shirley used to watch professional wrestling on television on occasion, but never had any real desire to pursue a mat career. However, one day during a TV interview, Shirley heard one of the gal grapplers telling about the around-the-world trips and money she made as a professional wrestler.

As a model, Shirley had done her share of travelling, but the idea of making a living by doing something she really enjoyed appealed to Miss Sanders immensely.

"At one time, I thought that being an actress and a model was all I wanted to be, but now I'm hooked on wrestling and would certainly like to give it a whirl as a professional," states Shirley.

Shirley is well aware that the life of a professional wrestler isn't all 'milk and honey' and before she gives up her acting-modelling career she wants to be sure that she can make the grade as a grappler.

"I've read all the books on wrestling that I can find, I've been going to the gymnasium and working out regularly, and I've even been in touch with a few former women wrestlers to ask their advice about a mat career.

"No one has discouraged me, although I've been told that the road to the top in wrestling can be as tough as it is in acting and modelling.

"I know it will take time, but I'm young (Shirley is 20), and willing to learn. However, it's always a difficult decision when one wants to change careers.

"For now I'll stick to the amateur wrestling until I'm sure I'm ready for the pros, but now I have a new goal in life and I usually get what I want," Shirley added with a coy smile.

Shirley already has one requisite for being a professional gal grappler — beauty. Now, if she can sharpen her wrestling skills and get the proper guidance, it won't be long before Shirley Sanders makes her mark as a professional wrestler.

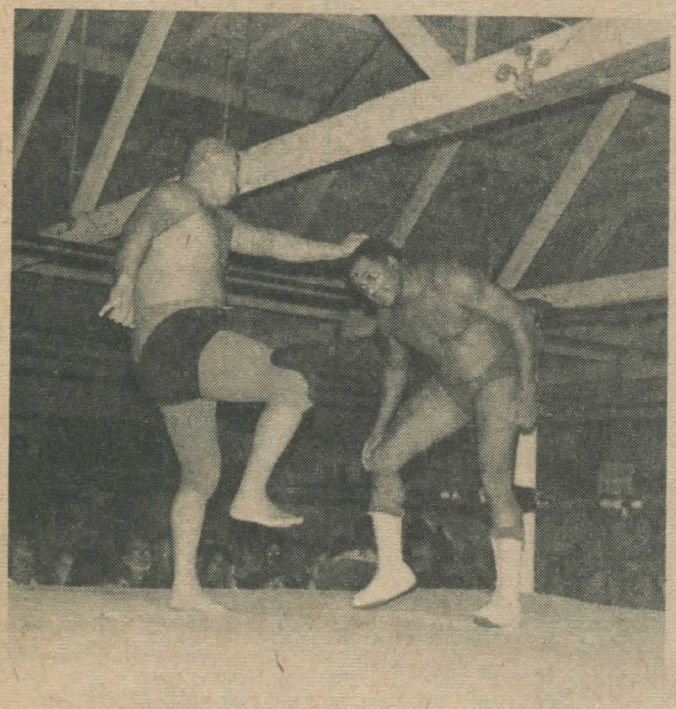
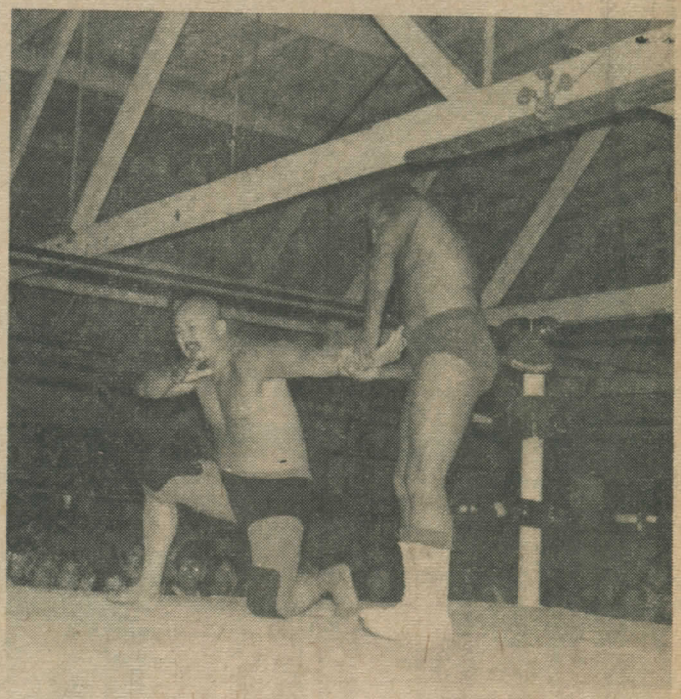
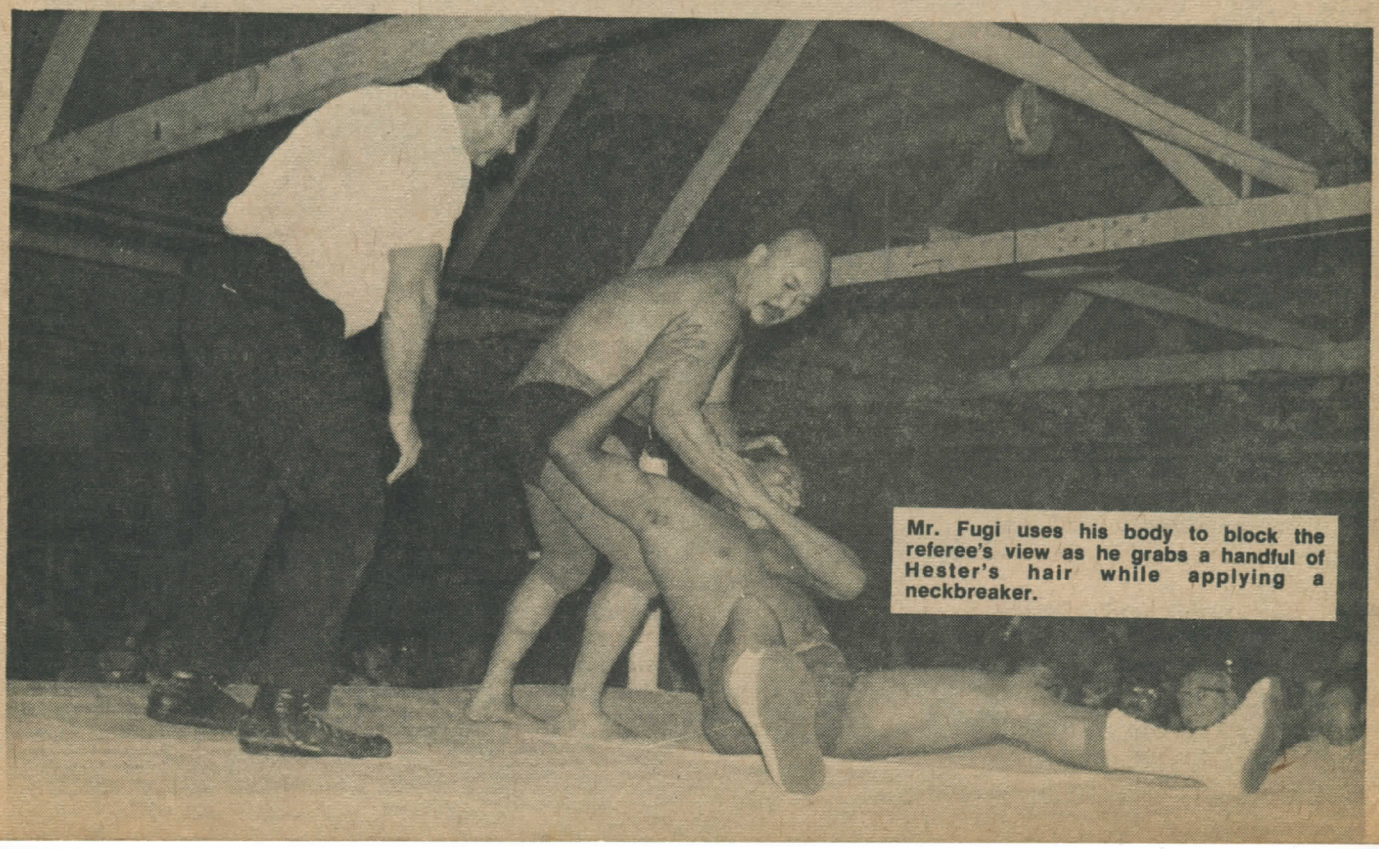
'HURRICANE' HITS MODESTO



Hester can see what is about to happen and doesn't like what he sees as Fugi is about to deliver a foot to the face while hanging on to Hester's hair.



Mr. Fugi begs for mercy while Hester does his best to turn the U.S. champion's left arm into a pretzel.



Mr. Fugi uses his body to block the referee's view as he grabs a handful of Hester's hair while applying a neckbreaker.

MR. FUGI TAKES WIND OUT OF HESTER'S SAILS

The storm warnings were up — a 'Hurricane' was headed for Modesto, Calif.

No, not a violent, tropical cyclonic storm having wind speeds of 73 miles per hour and greater.

This was a human 'Hurricane', better known to wrestling fans in the Los Angeles area as Frank Hester.

Hester had acquired quite a ring reputation in Southern California mat circles, so Modesto promoter Johnny Miller had to come up with a suitable opponent for 'Hurricane'.

What better foe for the rugged Hester than the honorable Mr Fugi, who just happens to hold the United States championship.

The 'Hurricane' tried to blow Fugi right out of the ring in the early going as Hester unloaded his full bag of wrestling tricks in order to make short work of Fugi.

An excruciating headlock had Fugi begging for mercy but the devious Japanese mat star was able to break the hold by pulling Hester's trunks.

Whipping Fugi into the turnbuckle, Hester then unleashed a barrage of punches, judo chops and kicks which had the U.S. champion reeling around the ring like a drunken sailor aboard ship on a stormy sea.

However, as Hester moved in for the 'kill', Fugi struck back suddenly with a vicious kick to the mid-section which had the 'Hurricane' gasping for air

Not one to let his opponent get away once he has the advantage, Fugi wasted no time in turning the tables on Hester.

While Hester had abided by the rules in giving Fugi a goingover, the Japanese grappler chose to ignore the regulations of the grappling game as he struck back at the Los Angeles import.

Hair-pulling, choke holds, karate chops and just good old-fashioned punches were all part of Fugi's repetoire as he attempted to finish off Hester.

However, Fugi underestimated the durability of Hester and soon found

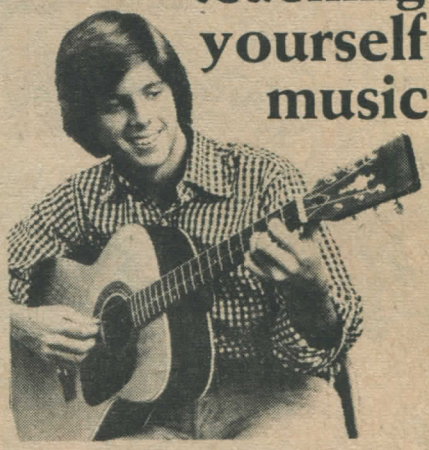
The secret of teaching yourself music



Learn piano, guitar, etc., at home in spare time

It may seem odd at first—the idea of teaching yourself music. You might think you need an expensive private teacher to instruct you—and to tell you when you make a mistake.

But, the fact is, you don't. Thousands have taught themselves to play with the U.S. School of Music courses. By mail. So can you.

The secret lies in the step-by-step way our lessons teach you. Starting from scratch, they show you with simple words and pictures exactly what to do. You learn to play the right way – by note, from sheet music. Without gimmicks.

But how do you know you're doing it right? Easy. A lot of the tunes you'll practice first are simple songs you've heard before. Since you know how they're supposed to sound, you can tell when you've "got them right."

By the time you go on to more advanced pieces, you'll be able to tell if your notes and timing are right, even without having heard the songs. Before too long, you'll be playing different kinds of music: ballads, old favorites, show tunes, or hymns.

For more information about this convenient, economical way to learn music, mail the coupon. We'll send you our free booklet, "Be Your Own Music Teacher" and a free "Note-Finder." No obligation.

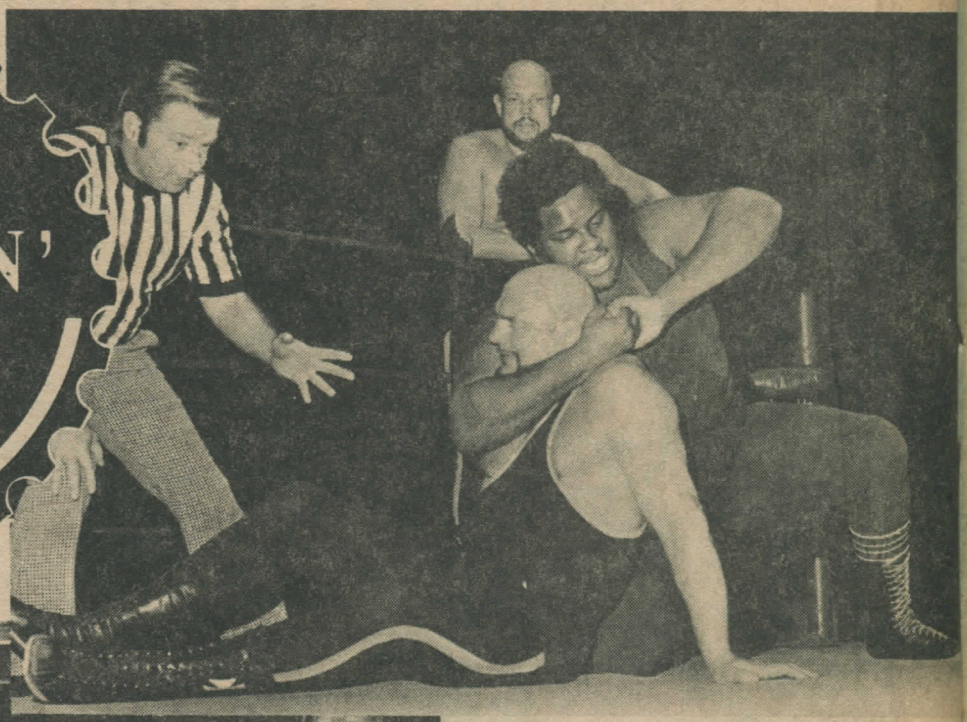
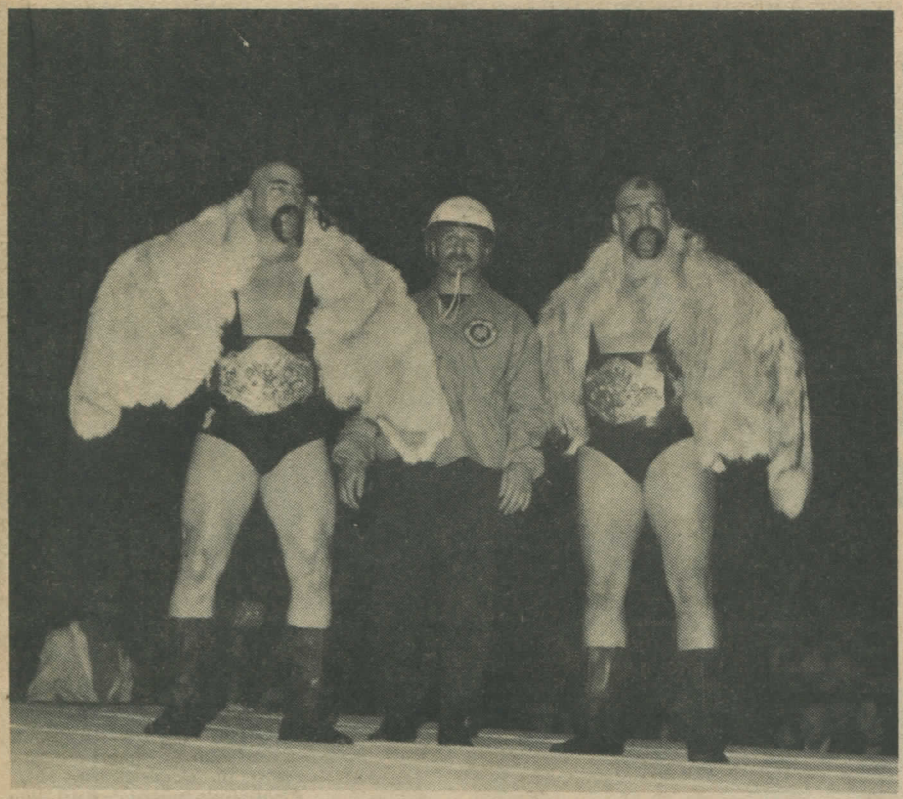
GORDON'S GRAPPLIN'



Bruiser Banks grits his teeth as he applies a chinlock on Karl Von Stroheim during a tag-team tussle in Greensboro, N.C., while Von Stroheim's partner Kurt Von Hess watches from outside the ropes. The German duo defeated Banks and his partner Pistol Pez Whatley.

A successful tag-team combination in the Mid-Atlantic region is the duo of Steve Keirn (right) and Danny Little Bear.

Referee Angelo Martinelli was the low man on the totem pole in this photo and doesn't find the experience enjoyable as the barefooted Ann Casey is riding high atop her mat opponent Dottie Downs much to Martinelli's discomfort.



A dastardly duo, The Mongols, are shown with their manager Professor Malenko. The Mongols are followers of the 'win-at-any-cost' wrestling code and are known to more than bend the rules with regularity.

Paul Jones displays his amazing strength as he tosses Gene Anderson over his back with relative ease.

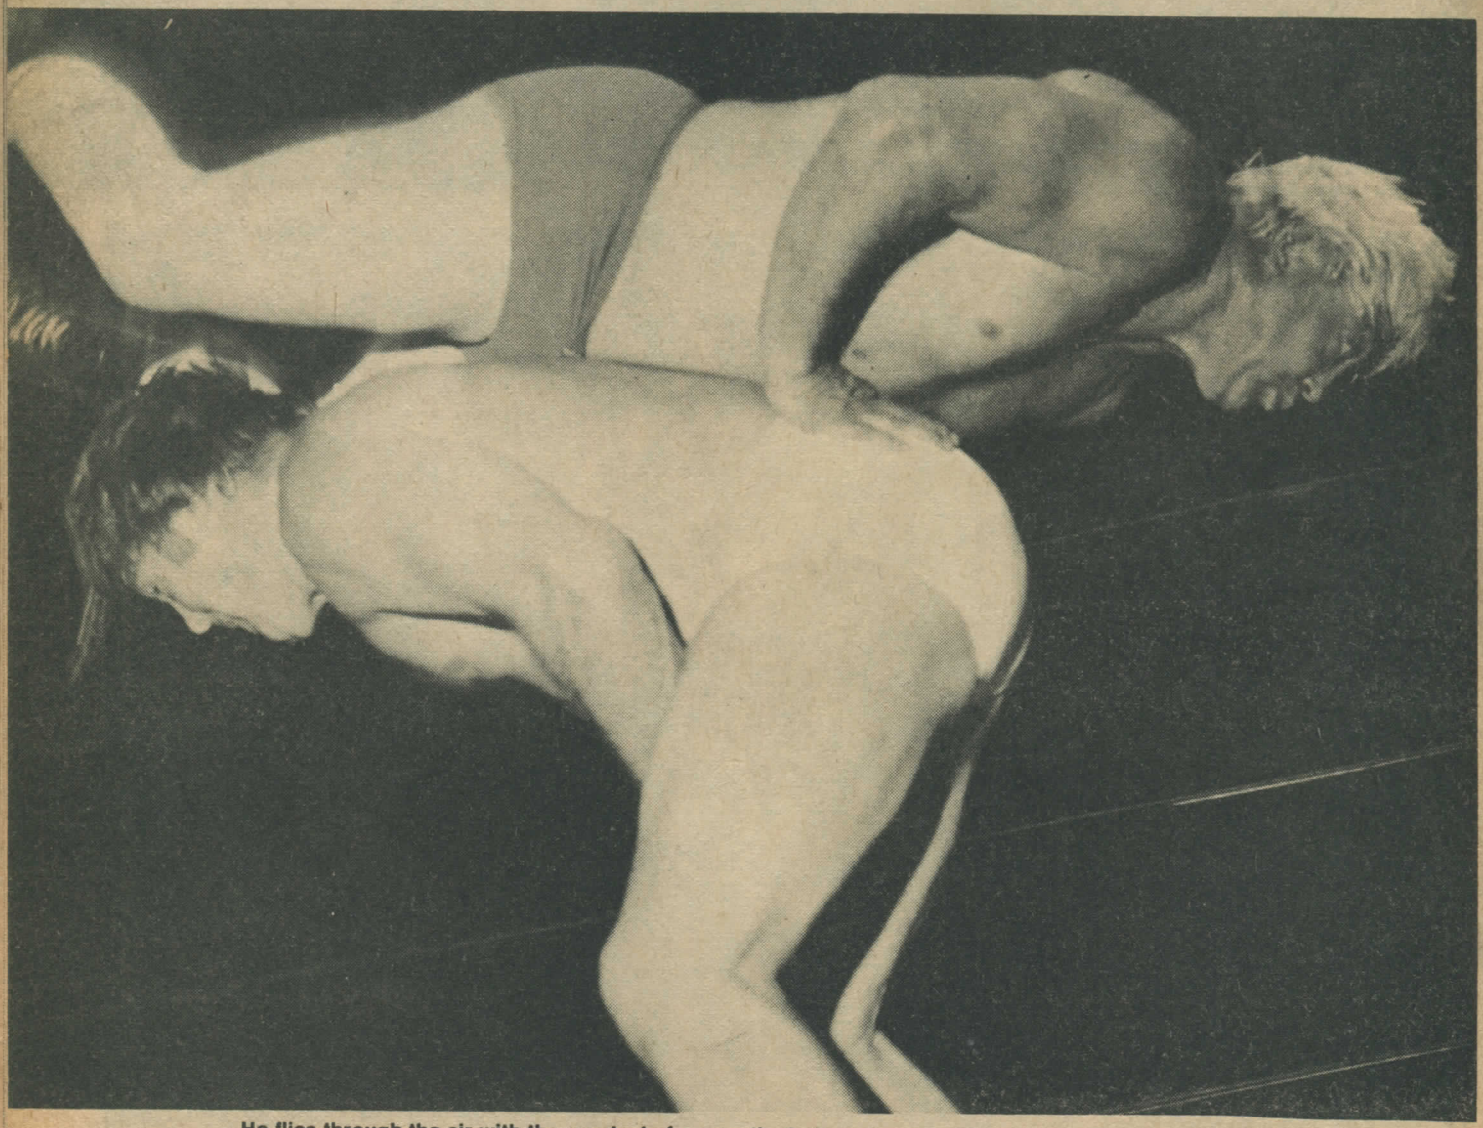
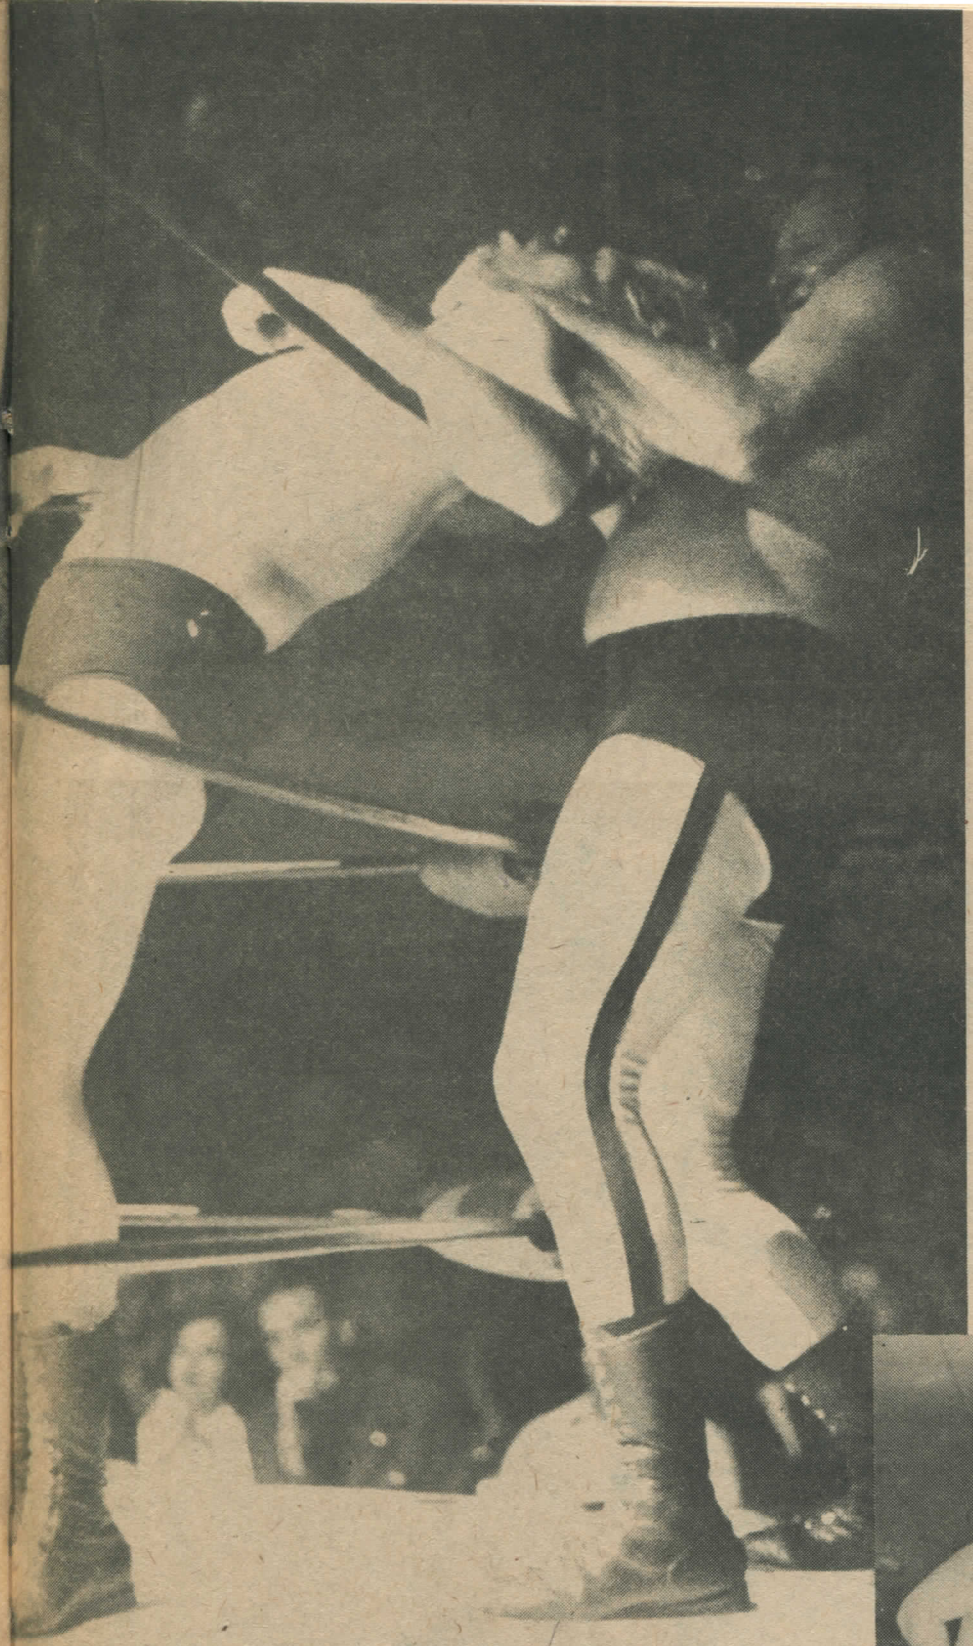
GORDON'S GRAPPLIN' GEMS

It's not all work and no play for members of the wrestling fraternity as (left to right) George Harris, former grappler Happy Humphrey, Frank Morrell and Billy 'Toy Bulldog' Hines pose for a picture during a socializing session.



He flies through the air with the greatest of ease... that's Ray Stevens as he sails over the back of Tim Woods.



Frank Morrell (outside ropes) makes life miserable for Jim Dillon as he uses the ring ropes for added leverage in applying a chokehold.

A professional for a year and a half, Vivian St. John, a native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., is one of the fast rising gal grapplers. Vivian is a regular tag-team partner with Susie Green and they form a winning combination.

A sure way to get a headache is to have someone like Eric The Red connect with an elbow smash to the skull as Nelson Royal discovers much to his displeasure.

GORDON'S GRAPPLIN' GEMS

Jim McKinney, also known as Seminole Jim, makes a point over the microphone while surrounded by his admirers. The masked man on McKinney's right is The Invader.

Blonde Paula Kaye howls in agony as Sheila Sheppard goes to work on her left arm. The highly-regarded Sheppard continued her winning ways at Paula's expense.

Bulldog Brower has the upper hand in the early going as he forces Mil Mascaras to his knees while applying an arm hold.

BULLDOG PUTS THE BITE ON MASCARAS

Masked men are usually associated with evil — the exception, of course, being the crime fighters of comic book, radio and television fame like the Lone Ranger, Spiderman, The Phantom, Batman and Robin.

The same holds true in the grappling game as the majority of the masked matmen tend to be villains who use the mask to hide foreign objects which they can call upon when the going gets rough.

One exception to this rule is Mil Mascaras, the man of the multi-colored masks.

Recently, the popular Mascaras was pitted against the villainous Bulldog Brower with Brower's North American championship belt at stake.

The masked Mil Mascaras was out to prove Bulldog's bark was worse than his bite.

The action was fast and furious from the opening bell as Brower showed the determination of a 'Bulldog' in attempting to hold on to his title.

It was a 'no-quarter-asked', 'no-quarter-given match' and the pace picked up even more when the combatants found themselves outside the ring.

While the grapplers were engaged in their toe-to-toe slugfest outside the ring, Brower's manager, Billy Hines, got into the act and gave the masked Mascaras a going over.

It was the second time that Hines had interfered with the bout, earlier having saved Brower from being pinned by jumping into the ring and yanking Mascaras off Bulldog.

While Mil Mascaras was battling Hines outside the ring, Brower managed to climb back into the squared circle and the referee counted the masked man out.

Irate at the outcome and spurred on by his fans who were outraged, Mascaras promptly seized Brower's championship belt and proceeded to beat the Bulldog over the head while saving a few cracks for manager Hines as well.

Bulldog retired to the dressing room 'with his tail between his legs' but his championship intact.

Who said crime does not pay? It certainly did the night the masked man got robbed.

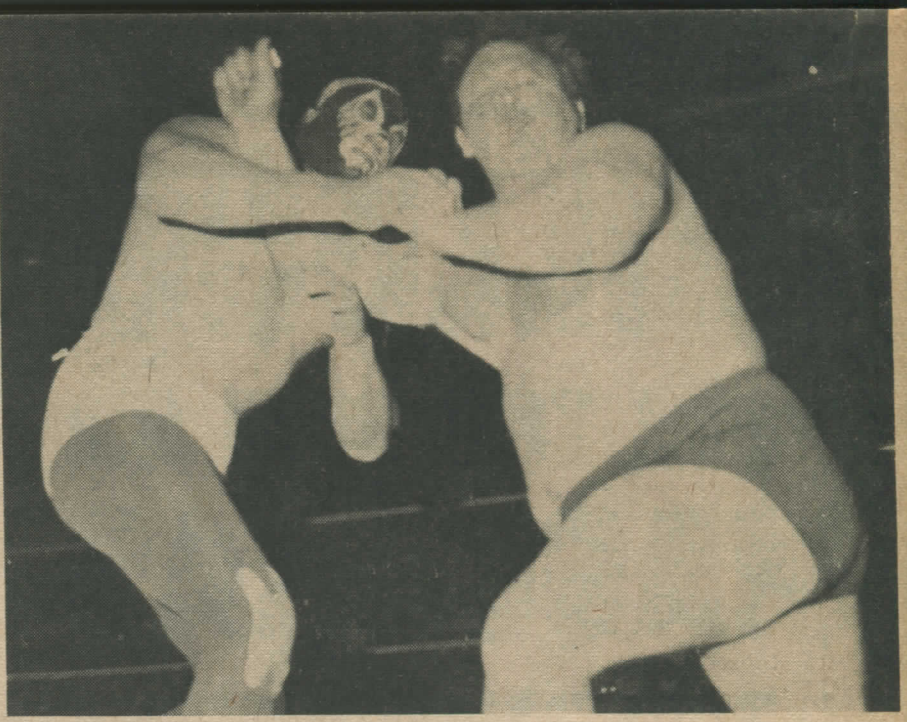
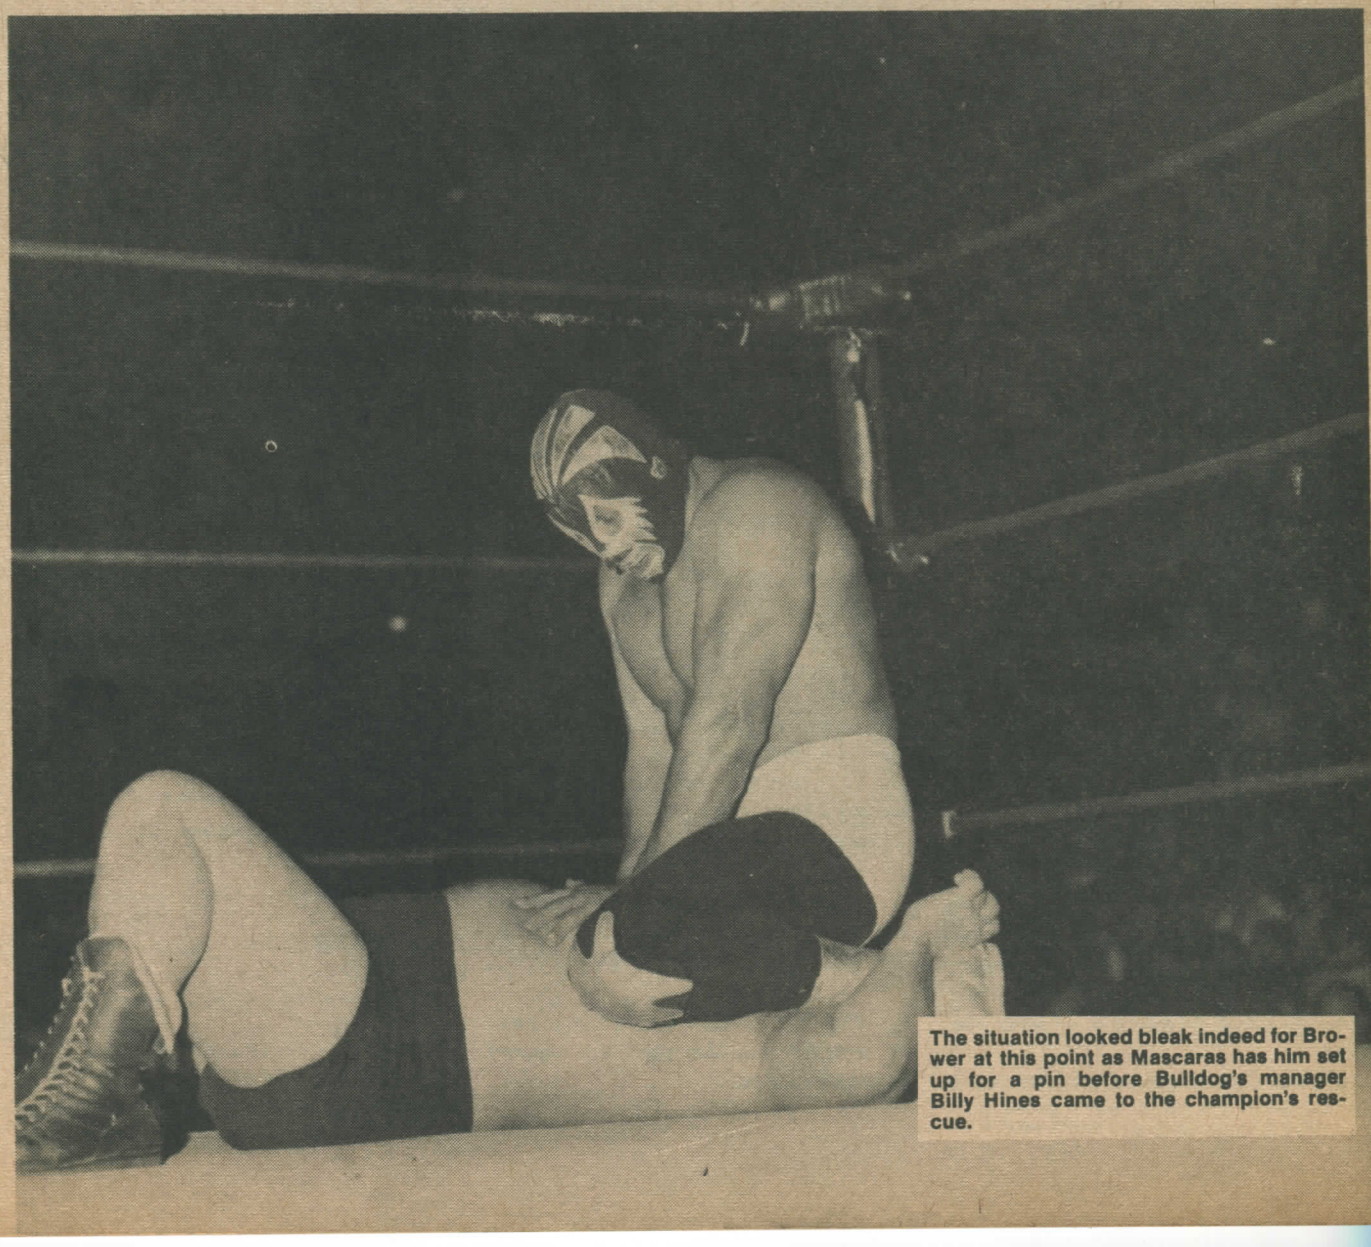
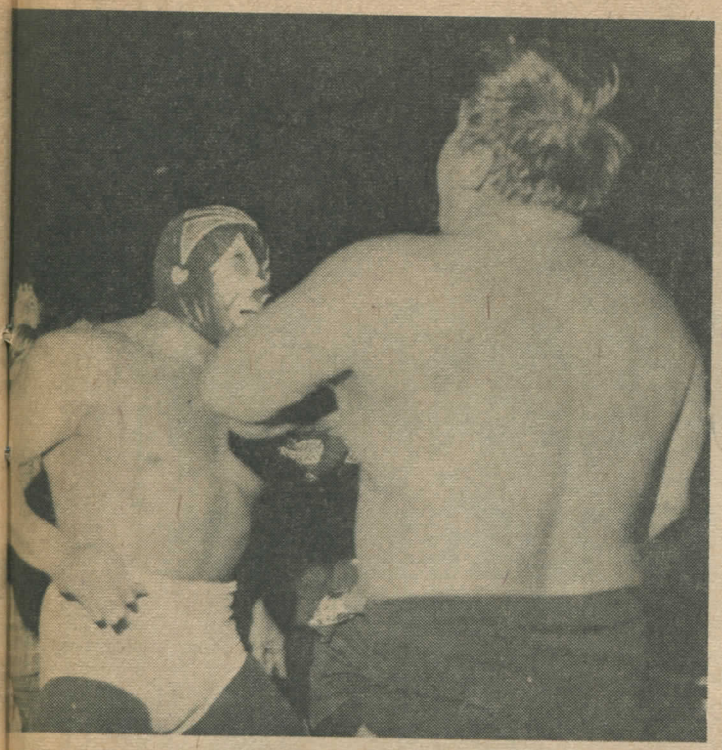
HINES SAVES DAY AS BROWER RETAINS TITLE



The masked Mascaras bounces backs and staggers Brower with some well-timed punches to the head during a toe-to-toe exchange.



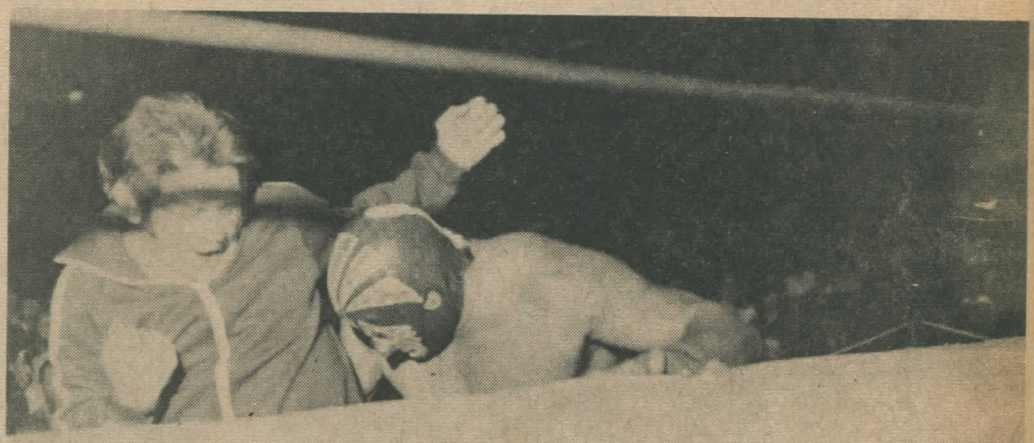
The situation looked bleak indeed for Brower at this point as Mascaras has him set up for a pin before Bulldog's manager Billy Hines came to the champion's rescue.

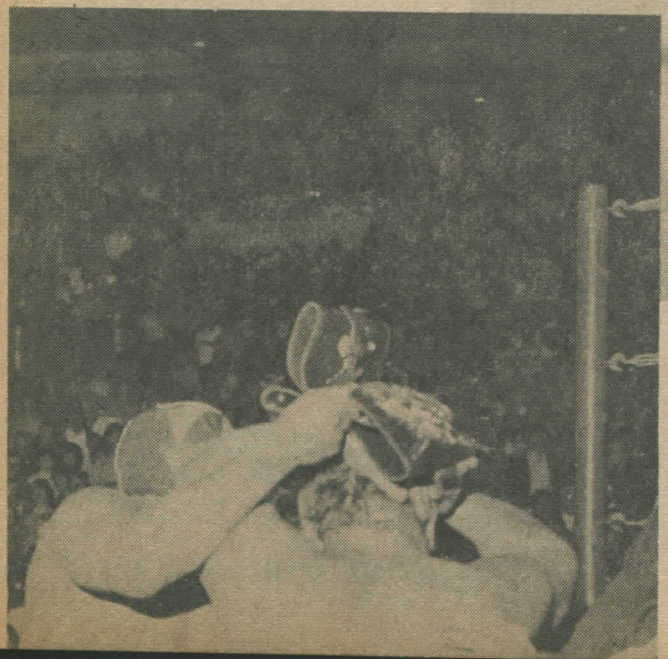


The action was fast and furious when the combatants were outside the ring as they take turns throwing their best punches.

Mil Mascaras has latched on to Brower's hair and is about to ram the Bulldog's head into the side of the ring.

MASKED MAN GETS ROBBED





Brower's manager Hines gets back in the act and gives the unsuspecting Mascaras a going over to prevent the masked man from returning to the ring.

Brower was the winner and still North American champion but Mascaras got in the last licks by beating Bulldog over the head with his own belt.

THE HATCHET LADY'S CAREER CUT SHORT BY FREAK MISHAP

As recently as March, 1974, Natasha, also known as the Hatchet Lady, was ranked number five among the world's women wrestlers.

Natasha earned this lofty position in the rankings strictly on merit as she was undoubtedly the roughest, toughest gal grappler among the current crop.

In fact, veteran mat observers had to go back to the 1930s and 1940s to the likes of a couple of wildcats such as Mae Young and Gladys Gillem to find anyone who could compare with Natasha when it came to a roughouse ring style.

As well as wrestling ability, Natasha had the other ingredients for superstardom, a beautiful body and face as she had been a former model.

Experts were confident that it wouldn't be long before Natasha would be top contender for the Fabulous Moolah's title, and some went so far as to predict Natasha would end Moolah's reign as queen of the wrestling world.

Suddenly, Natasha disappeared from the wrestling scene.

One night, my telephone rang and I didn't recognize the voice on the other end of the line immediately.

"This is Natasha. Remember me?", said the voice on the other end.

"I got your phone number through one of your friends. I wanted to let you know that I'm still around but not wrestling," she added.

Then, Natasha explained her absence from the mat world and why she won't be returning to the ring.

Tampa, Fla. While shopping, I slipped on a clear liquid substance cn the floor of the store, fell on my left shoulder and broke it.

"I've had two operations on the shoulder and have been to several specialists, but they all tell me the same thing. There's no chance of me ever wrestling again.

"This is really heartbreaking for me as I really loved wrestling and had high hopes of someday winning the world championship," stated Natasha.

It seems somewhat ironic that one of the roughest, toughest gal grapplers who engaged in many slambang matches would have her career nipped in the bud by a freak mishap, but such is the fickleness of fate.

BEVERLY SHADE WAS NATASHA'S FIRST OPPONENT

Natasha didn't have an easy life as a child being one of eight offspring of a Benton, Tenn., sharecropper.

"I spent my early years working on the farm, picking cotton, chopping cotton, gardening and various other chores. All us children had to pitch in and help my mother and father in order to make a living.

"Times were hard and working days were long. We really looked forward to the weekends, or at least part of the weekend. Sometimes we had to work in the fields until noon Saturdays. It was from sunup to sundown Monday through Friday unless it rained.

"I also helped my mother can fruits and vegetables during the summer. We grew most everything that went on our table at home," recalled Natasha.

Natasha (right) and another former gal grappler Jodi Bass show that they haven't lost any of the beauty that made them popular mat stars of the past.

"I grew tired of being poor and hated wearing hand-me-down clothes all the time when I was a young girl. I used to dream of some day being rich and famous.

"That sun could really beat down on you out there in the fields of those Tennessee hills and I decided then and there that I wanted to be a wrestler and get away from this farm life.

"When I was in my early teens I got interested in attending the wrestling matches and made it a point never to miss the matches when girls were booked on the card.

"Reading and hearing about all the money these girls were making, seeing the fine clothes that they wore and learning that they were travelling and seeing the world while wrestling made me more determined to try my hand at the sport.

"I've always been a sports fans and wrestling was my favorite, but I wasn't satisfied to just be a spectator. I wanted to become a professional wrestler." said Natasha.

Natasha made her professional mat debut in 1968, taking on Beverly Shade. Although Natasha emerged victorious, the win wasn't an easy one as Miss Shade was a rugged customer. In fact, Beverly is still active, mostly in Florida and Canada.

Natasha's good looks and rugged ring style stood her in good stead as she made steady progress up the ladder of wrestling success with wins over the likes of Betty Nicolli, Ann Casey and Cora Combs.

Any bout with Natasha in it was sure to be an action-packed affair and promoters everywhere were clamoring for her services not only in the United States but also in the four corners of the grappling globe.

Early in 1974, Natasha had soared to the number five spot in the official world wrestling ratings and had just returned from a successful six-week tour of Japan where she was a big hit and invited back again as soon as possible.

HATCHET LADY RANKED FIFTH BEFORE INJURY

Then came that fateful trip to the grocery store, an unfortunate slip and a tragic end to a great grappling career.

Natasha's championship dreams were shattered along with the shoulder.

Although she disappeared from the mat scene, Natasha has never been forgotten by wrestling afficionados, particularly those who follow the gal grapplers.

Dame Fortune dealt Natasha a cruel blow, but those in the know all agree that she had the makings of a genuine wrestling superstar.

Natasha's premature retirement was a great loss to the grappling game.

It may be many years before another woman wrestler comes along who can compare with Natasha as far as looks, skill and ruggedness are concerned and if any rising gal grapplers are ever referred to as 'another Natasha' they can consider it the supreme compliment.

A real 'tiger' in the ring, Natasha was the exact opposite outside and was always a credit to her sport.

Although Lady Luck failed to smile on Natasha as far as her professional wrestling career was concerned, the entire wrestling fraternity wishes her the best of everything in all her future endeavors.

WRESTLING HALL OF FAME CAME TOO LATE FOR JIM LONDOS AN ALL-TIME GREAT

The legendary grappling great Jim Londos was honored by the Cauliflower Alley Club in Hollywood in a public appearance before his death. Londo's presence brought out such other former mat stars as Everett Sanders (left), George Wagner (on Londos' left) and Hardboiled Haggerty (far right).

Wrestling's creation of an International Hall of Fame in Hollywood, Calif., came too late to honor the colorful gladiator who made the mat sport the most popular athletic event in existence... Jim Londos.

To the late and great 'Golden Greek' goes the undisputed distinction and honor of leading the vanguard of mat heroes who popularized the grappling game in the 1920s and '30s.

Born in Greece, Christopher Theophelus was reared in the San Francisco area. Turning pro in 1917, Londos competed as a light-heavyweight before gaining weight and muscle with maturity.

Londos became one of the greatest gate attractions in the history of the grappling game, who, like wine, improved with age. Londos came out of retirement to defeat the 'Ambling Alp', former world heavyweight boxing champion turned wrestler Primo Carnera at Wrigley Field in Chicago, Ill., in 1950. Londos was a mere 'lad' of 53 at the time.

During his five-year reign as world wrestling champion, Londos was all but unbeatable except when it came to head-to-head confrontations with Ed 'Strangler' Lewis.

Lewis had defeated Londos 14 straight times until the fateful night in 1934 at Chicago's Wrigley Field when the 'Golden Greek' scored the most satisfying victories of his legendary mat career. The Lewis-Londos match attracted a gross gate of $96,000. an amazing figure for those pre-inflation days of the 30s.

The only competitors to threaten and rival the hero worship of the Golden Greek during his mat heyday, were Lewis and Lou Thesz, the colorful Hungarian Adonis.

Thesz reached meteoric heights in 1937 when he captured the world mat crown from Everett Marshall in St. Louis. In succeeding years, Lou became the only grappler in the kingdom of the grunt and groan sport to annex the world championship five times!

'Strangler' Lewis was one of the early wrestling pioneers and legendary figures who dominated the mat game in the 1920s and 30s. Lewis was a collegiate champion at Kentucky University and in 1914 launched a professional career in which he defeated such grappling greats as Joe Stecher, Earl Caddock, Stan Zbyszko and Londos.

On Dec. 13, 1920, Lewis beat Stecher to win the title and he captured the diadem three more times before he retired to become a goodwill ambassador of the sport.

Not all of the famous mat greats were legitimate world titleholders although Tiger Joe Marsh, who donned a $1,000 custom-made robe, maintains he whipped Jim Browning fair and square in 1933 to claim the title. Marsh like Mike Mazurki made a name for himself in Holllywood and will soon portray the late mat impresario Toots Mondt on the silver screen.

Wrestling's Golden Era of the '30s paraded many title claimants like Ed Don George, Dick Shikat, Browning and Danno O'Mahoney. During the late 40s and early 50s, with the advent of television the grunt and groan sport produced a new era of torso-twisters, including Argentine Rocca, Vern Gagne, Gorgeous George, Buddy Rogers, Lord Carlson, Barone Michele Leone, and handsome Tony Lanza.

Gorgeous George draped himself in Louis XVth robes and carried imported perfume to sprinkle on his sweat-producing opponents, hoping to lull them to an early slumber and pin. Englishmen Lord Carlton would not climb through the ropes unless attired in his long flowing cape and monocle, with his faithful valet right behind. The era of great showmen like Gorgeous George, Leone and Carlton did much to popularize wrestling and establish the mat game as the No. 1 fan sport in America.

Today thanks to the great gladiators like Londos, Thesz, Lewis and Don George, the kingdom of grunt and groan has developed a new breed of titlists like The Funk Brothers, Bruno Sammartino, Jack Brisco and Billy Robinson. These colorful and well conditioned titans are destined to add stature and a new dimension to the oldest sport in existence — wrestling 1977 style!

JAPANESE COBRA HOLD FINISHED L.A. IMPORT

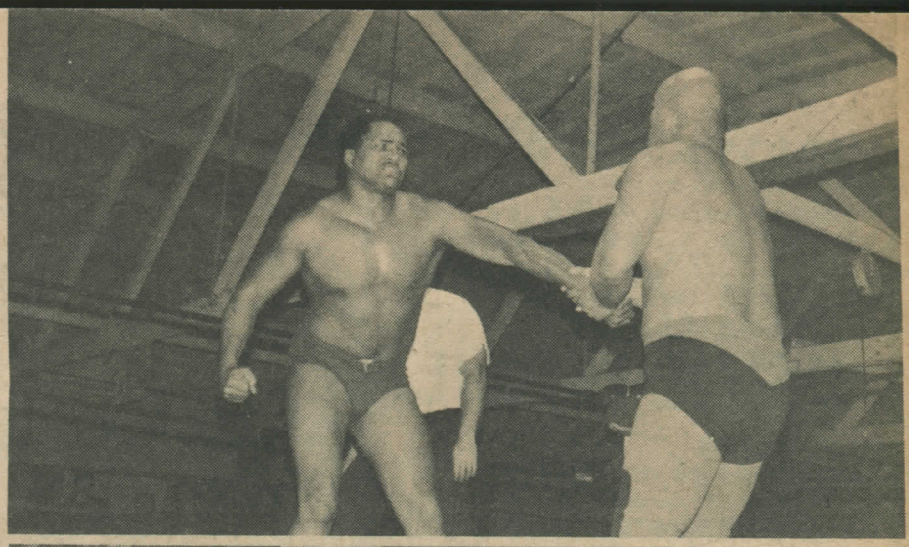
himself trapped in the abdominal stretch... a certain submission hold.

Fortunately for Fugi, Hester hadn't completely recovered from the ruthless attack to which he had been subjected and was unable to keep Fugi from reaching the sanctity of the ropes and forcing Hester to break the painful hold.

Repreived from almost certain defeat, Fugi wasted no time in applying the finishing touches to Hester. A couple of whips into the turnbuckles softened up Hester for Fugi's 'coup de grace', the painful Japanese cobra hold which caused Hester to concede the bout.

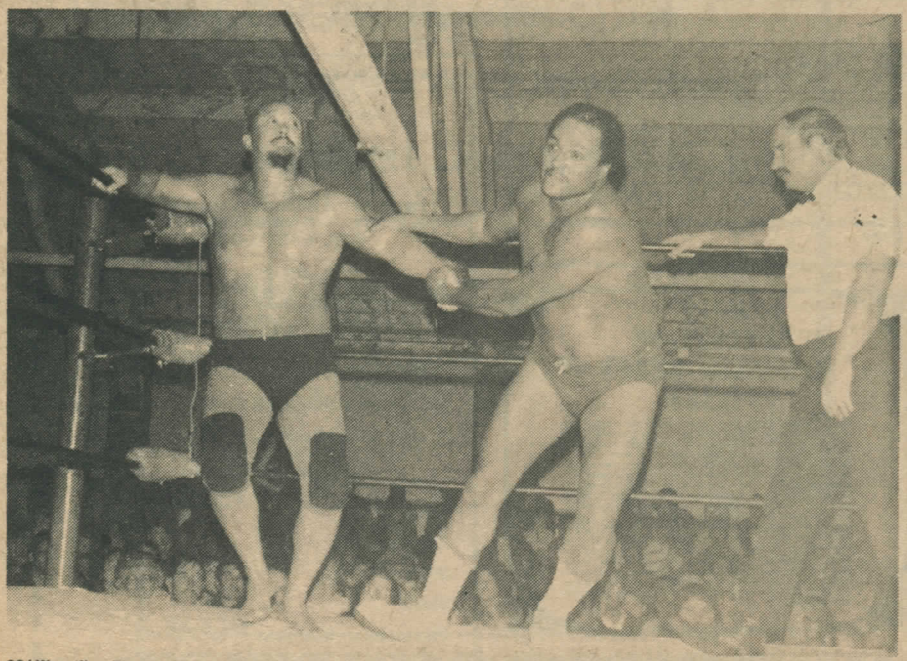
So, Fugi survived the 'Hurricane' while keeping his U.S. championship intact. However, even in defeat, Hester acquired some followers among the Modesto mat fans and it won't be long before the 'Hurricane' blows back Modesto way. When it does, the storm warnings will be up again.

Julius Ceasar was warned to beware the Ides of March, but Mr. Fugi must beware the return of the 'Hurricane'.



Hester warns Fugi, "Let go of my arm or I'll pop you one," while winding up to throw a roundhouse right. Fugi failed to heed the warning and wound up hitting the deck as Hester delivers the promised punch.

Turnabout is fair play and Hester is about to yank Fugi off the ropes and whip him into the nearest turnbuckle.



STORM WARNINGS UP, 'HURRICANE' WILL HIT MODESTO AGAIN

ENJOY AMATEUR GIRLS

Dear Sirs:

My wife and I are avid readers of Wrestling Revue. We especially enjoy the articles on the amateur girls such as the one on Judell DuLong and Elvira Rojas. My wife identified with Elvira since she is about the same size (5-foot-3, 122 pounds), and she is also exceptionally good at the scissors.

We wrestle at home for the exercise and the fun of it, and, even though I'm 5-foot-11 and 158 pounds, she wins about half our bouts by trapping me in a head or body scissors. Her legs are amazingly strong and she has even made a 185-pound friend of mine submit to her body scissors.

We are wondering if there is any way to measure the strength of the legs in a scissor hold and also what kind of exercises the amateur and professional girls use to perfect this hold. My wife has read everything she can find on the subject and can't find any answers.

She considers herself a sort or female Joe Stecher and thinks the scissors is one submission hold a woman can perfect as well as a man.

Could you please do a feature on some of the amateur girls and show us what kind of training they use that might help?

You might even make some sort of contest to establish a female 'scissors queen'.

Hope you can work out a feature on this.

In the meantime, keep up the fine work and please continue to bring us lots of coverage on the amateur girls.

Yours truly,
Mike and Linda Pring,
Aurora, Colo.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: In the near future, we plan to do a feature on Judell DuLong's training routine which should be of interest to you and your wife. However, no decision has been made yet as to whether this article will appear in Wrestling Monthly, or one of its sister publications, Wrestling Revue or Big Book of Wrestling.

We know of no means of measuring the strength of a leg scissors, but if someone knows of such a device, perhaps a scissors queen contest could be held.)

Fitness is my business

I RECOMMEND BULLWORKER® BECAUSE IT'S FAST, IT'S EASY AND IT REALLY WORKS!

Bob Breton says "I earn my living by keeping top executives in peak physical shape. My clients insist on maximum results with minimum time and effort. I recommend Bullworker because it's fast, it's easy and it really works."

Most men know they're not getting enough exercise to keep their bodies in shape.

Ten years as a fitness coach has taught me one important fact: most men will not stick with a training program long enough for it to do them any good, unless the training is fast, easy and shows results right away.

Bullworker gets a top score on all three counts:

—it's fast: each exercise takes only 7 seconds and the complete workout can be done in about five minutes

—it's easy: any man between 15 and 65 in good general health can perform the full program without getting tired

—you see your results right from the very first day on the built-in Power-meter gauge. After two to three weeks of regular training, most men can expect to measure an extra inch or two of muscle on their shoulders, chest and biceps—and an inch or two less flab around the middle.

And that's just the start: there are specialized exercises for building-up or trimming-down any part of your body you want to. What's more since Bullworker training is progressive, you perform better each time. Yet the training always seems easy since with every workout your strength increases by about 1%—that's an increase of up to 50% in just three months, and I've seen many men go on to double and even triple their strength. For my money, Bullworker is the most advanced home trainer on the market. I use it and recommend it to any man who wants to get back in top shape fast.

Is it true the amazing secret of TELECULT POWER

AUTOMATICALLY BRINGS YOU ANYTHING YOU DESIRE...

And in 10 seconds starts to draw Riches, Love, Fine Possessions, Friends, Power, Secret Knowledge, and much more into your life? See for yourself!

Yes, a staggering miracle has happened; A brilliant psychic researcher has discovered a secret—so powerful that it is said to bring your desires to you, from the invisible world, like a blazing streak of lightning!

Yes, how would you like to be able to sit in your living room, give the command for love, and instantly have your loved one appear at your side? Or give the command for money, and suddenly find a big, thick roll of dollars in your hand?•

Now, a daring new book called TELECULT POWER lays bare this magic secret, and shows how it can bring fortune, love, and happiness. And Reese P. Dubin – the man who discovered it – makes this shocking claim . . .

"Great Wealth And Power Can Be Yours!"

Admittedly, the concept this book proposes is completely opposed and contrary to normal human knowledge and experience. "But at this very moment," says Mr. Dubin, "I have startling proof that I want you to see with your own eyes! I want to show you . . .

• "How diamonds and jewels have appeared, seemingly out of nothingness, shortly after the use of this strange secret!"
• "How a man used this method for a pocketful of money!"
• "How a woman used it to fill an empty purse!"
• "How a farmer received a pot full of gold!"
• "How another user Teleported a gold jewel box to her, seemingly out of thin air!"
• "How a woman used this method to regain her lost youth!"
• "How a man, growing bald, claims he renewed the growth of his hair with this secret!"
• "How a woman used it to bring her mate to her, without asking!"
• "How another woman summoned a man to her —out of thin air!"
• "How a man heard the unspoken thoughts of others, with this secret!"
• "How a woman saw behind walls and over great distances, with it!"
• "How a man broadcast silent commands that others had to obey!"

Let us now clearly demonstrate to you the scientific basis behind the new wonderworking, Miracle of TELECULT POWER!

"How Telecult Power Brings Any Desire Easily And Automatically!"

For many years, Reese P. Dubin dreamed of a way to call upon the invisible forces at work all around us. He spent a lifetime digging and searching for the secret. These investigations brought him knowledge that goes back to the dim recesses of the past.

One day, to his astonishment, he discovered that he could actually broadcast silent commands, which others instantly obeyed. Using the secret he tells you about in this book, he tried it time after time – commanding others to sleep, get up and come to him, talk or not talk – and act according to his silent wishes. It worked every time!

Working relentlessly from this evidence, Reese P. Dubin succeeded in perfecting a new kind of instrument – called a Tele-Photo Transmitter – that concentrates your thoughts, and sends them like a streaking bullet to their destination!

OTHERS OBEY SILENT COMMANDS! Writing of the success of this method, one user reports the following experience:

"I willed her to pick up and eat a biscuit from a plate in a corner of the room. She did so. I willed her to shake hands with her mother. She rushed to her mother and stroked her hands . . .

"I willed her to nod. She stood still and bent her head, I willed her to clap her hands, play a note on the piano, write her name, all of which she did."

"No one can escape the power of this method," says Mr. Dubin. "Everybody – high or low, ignorant or wise – all are subject to its spell! And unless the person is told what's being done, he will think the thoughts are his own!"

HEARS THE THOUGHTS OF OTHERS! Experimenting further with the Tele-Photo Transmitter, Reese P. Dubin soon found that he could "tune in" and HEAR the unspoken thoughts of others. He says, "At first, these hearing impressions startled me, and I took them for actual speech, until I realized that people don't usually say such things aloud! And their lips remained closed."

SEES BEYOND WALLS, AND OVER GREAT DISTANCES! Then he discovered he could pick up actual sights, from behind walls and over great distances! And when he "tuned in" he could see actual living scenes before him—as clear as the picture on a television screen!

MAKES WOMAN APPEAR – SEEMINGLY OUT OF THIN AIR! With mounting excitement, Reese P. Dubin launched one of the most exciting experiments in the history of psychic research. He wanted to see if the Tele-Photo Transmitter could bring him an actual material object! He chose, for this experiment, the seemingly impossible: an actual living person!

He simply focused the Tele-Photo Transmitter, by dialing the object of his desire. In a flash the door burst open, and there – standing before him, as real as life – was his long-lost cousin!

He stared and rubbed his eyes, and looked again! There – smiling, with arms outstretched in greeting– stood living proof of the most astounding discovery of the Century!

Dial Any Treasure!

You'll see how to use the Tele-Photo Transmitter, to summon your desires. This special instrument – your mental equipment – requires no wires, and no electricity. "Yet," says Mr. Dubin, "it can teleport desires, swiftly from the invisible world."

When you dial your desire–whether for riches, love, or secret knowledge–you capture its invisible, photoplasmic form, at which point "it starts to materialize!" says Dr. Dubin.

"Telecult Power can work seeming miracles in your life," says Mr. Dubin. "With it, it is possible to dial any desire – called a Photo-Form – then sit back, relax, and watch this powerful secret go to work!"

"Instantly Your Life Is Changed!"

With this secret, the mightiest force in the Universe is at your command! "Simply ask for anything you want," says Mr. Dubin, "whether it be riches, love, fine possessions, power, friends, or secret knowledge!"

Suppose you had dialed Photo-Form #2 for Jewels, for example. That's what Margaret C. did, in an actual example Mr. Dubin tells you about. Rich, glittering diamonds and jewels literally appeared at her feet: a pair of gold earrings, which she found that morning . . . a surprise gift of a pearl necklace, and matching silver bracelets . . . a beautiful platinum ring set with emeralds and diamonds, dropped on her front lawn!

"Almost overnight," says Mr. Dubin, "it can start to multiply riches, bring romance and love . . . draw favors, gifts, new friends . . . or anything else asked for! It isn't necessary for you to understand why. What is important is that it has already worked for many others . . . men and women in all walks of life . . . worked every time . . . and it will work for you, too!"

Brings A Pocket Full Of Money!

You'll see how Jerry D. used this method. He was broke a week before payday. All he did, he says, was to dial Photo-Form #1. Suddenly he felt a bulge in his pocket. Lo and behold! He took out a roll of money . . . fives, tens, twenties . . . and more! Obviously, it had been placed there—but when? And by whom?

A Brand New Car Comes!

Marty C., a taxi driver, reports that he just dialed Photo-Form #4, sat back, relaxed, and waited for things to happen. In a short time, great excitement filled the house. His wife came hurrying in, saying, "We won it! We won a car and a cash prize! They just delivered it!" He got up and went to the window. There, big and beautiful, standing in the driveway, was a brand new Cadillac!

Brings Mate Without Asking!

Mrs. Conrad B. reports that she was tired of "pursuing" her husband, as she called it. She wanted him to voluntarily do the things she longed for, take her places, show affection. But he hadn't looked at her in years. He would fall asleep immediately after supper, or watched the ball games, or read the papers. Secretly Mrs. B. decided to try this method. She dialed Photo-Form #9 for Love! Instantly, her husband's attitude changed from boredom to interest and enthusiasm. And from that day forward, he showered her with kindness and affection! It was like a miracle come true!

The Power Of This Method!

There are so many personal experiences which I could recount, stories of healing, wealth, and happiness with this secret, that I find myself wanting to tell all of them at once. Here are just a few . . .

• REGAINS HAIR GROWTH! Walter C. had a shiny bald head with just a fringe of white hair showing around the edges. He tried this method, and soon his hair began to regrow. The new hair came in thick, dark, and luxurious!

• ROLLS DICE 50 TIMES WITHOUT MISSING ONCE! You'll see how this secret gave Albert J. the power to roll the dice 50 times, without missing once, and—for the first time in the history of Las Vegas—walk away with $500,000!

• DISSOLVES ALL EVIL! You'll see how this amazing secret revealed to Lawrence M. the people who were trying to make him look silly at work—actually revealed their secret thoughts—made them confess and apologize!

If TELECULT POWER can do all this for others, what riches, what rewards, what amazing results can it also bring to you?
